Mr. and Mrs. Howard U. Hutto

Kathryn E. Montgomery and Howard U. Hutto were united in marriage at a very beautiful and impressive ceremony Saturday evening, November 4, at the Assembly of God church in Roseburg. Rev. William C. Ross performed the ceremony at seven o'clock in the presence of a large group of relatives and close friends.

Lavender, yellow and white chrysanthemums, autumn leaves and ferns formed the attractive altar decorations. Two tall candelabras, each holding seven white tapers, were lighted by Donovan Wright and Roy J. Smith.

"God's Way is the Best Way," was sung by Glen and Terrence Hodges, followed by the wedding march played by Mrs. John R. Montgomery. As the bride party took its place, Mary Lou Hutto sang, "I Love You Truly," and "Because." The bride was given in marriage by her father, R. B. Montgomery, and the vows were exchanged by candlelight.

A reception followed at the home of the bride's brother-in-law and sister, Mr. and Mrs. Roy J. Smith, at 547 Mill street. Those present were: Mr. and Mrs. Ted Hodges, Glen and Terrence Hodges, Gladys Story, Rev. and Mrs. William Ross, Mrs. Jess Williams, O. G. Rogers, Elva Green, R. B. Montgomery, Mr. and Mrs. John R. ## B. P. W. C. HAS ANNUAL BIRTHDAY PARTY ON MONDAY NIGHT

The Business & Professional Women's club entertained the past presidents and members and guests at their annual birthday party on Monday evening at the Woman's clubhouse, which was artistically decorated by large bowls of gold and bronze chrysanthemums.

The meeting was presided over by the president, Helen Saar, and among other business transactions, it was unanimously voted by the members to sponsor a "Baby Bond" drive as the club's participation in the Sixth War Bond drive. Details of this will be presented to the public at a later date. Mrs. Helen Wimberly, chairman of the Women's activity of the bond drive, was a guest speaker and gave an inspiring talk to the group. Willing workers in the persons of Mrs. Nellie McAllister, Miss Lorena Pease and Mary Helen Chastain responded to the call for members to form a committee to handle the drive for the club. Nellie McAllister read an appealing article to the club members to save their pin money and buy bonds through making sacrifices of their usual luxuries.

Gene Mills, chairman of the "Christmas cheer" committee, gave an interesting report of progress and it was voted by the club to respond with their usual donation to the fund.

The committee in charge of the entertainment program were Elnor Sherck, Nell Cummings and Alvin Wetherell.

Miss Marilyn Preston, accompanied by Helen Saar sang the solo "Always" beautifully, and Dorothy Bush, accompanied by Betty Hahn favored the group by singing "The Morning Wind" and "Peggy," which were enthusiastically applauded.

Mrs. Morris Roach, accompanied by Mrs. Homer Grow, rendered the always beautiful "The Old Refrain," by Chrysler, and "Londonair Air" on her violin, which created a very peaceful and restful atmosphere. After much coaxing Mrs. Grow favored the group by whistling to her own accompaniment "Your Song from Paradise."

Ina Farnsworth, song leader, led the group in singing a number of favorite songs, among which was "The Peanut Song," which is endless and caused much hilarity among those present.

To the tune of "Happy Birthday to You," a huge white birthday cake with candles too numerous to count, was presented to the club. This added to the already attractively decorated table with a centerpiece of pale yellow and white chrysanthemums, made the delicious refreshments more tasty when served by the past presidents presiding at the table.

A large number of members were present also a number of guests and several applications for membership were noted. Mrs. Edna May Hayward, who is publicity chairman for the club and attends the chamber of commerce meetings as representative of the club, related the workings of the chamber in forwarding the many projects which are in progress toward the betterment of Roseburg and vicinity and the preparations being made for employment of returning men and women to civilian life when peace comes.

BELLVIEW CLUB HAS ENJOYABLE AFTERNOON MEETING WEDNESDAY

Bellview club met Wednesday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Charles Arney on Deer creek. One of the most interesting feature of the club sessions is the roll call, when each member present answers by reading some article of interest and enjoyment.

Cora Collison, program committee chairman, announced an especially fine Christmas program and party had been planned for the next meeting to be held December 6 at the home of Belle Huff in Roseburg.

Visiting was enjoyed and at the tea hour Mrs. Arney served delicious refreshments to: Irene Walker, Betty Haley, Olive and Mazie O. Walker, Alma Lovelace, Mary Southwick, Belle Huff, Esther Morberg, Cora Collison, Edith Brauch, Edna M. Parker and Lora Kester, members, and Mary Ellen Collison and daughter, Cora Lynn; and Gerry Ann Arney, guests.

CIRCLE NO. 1 GIVES CHARMING TEA FOR NEW MEMBERS OF THE PARISH

Circle No. 1 of St. Joseph's Altar society entertained at a very charming afternoon tea Wednesday at the rectory honoring the new ladies in the parish. Mrs. W. F. Amiot, president, and Mrs. J. A. Harding and Mrs. L. L. Miller received the guests. Mrs. L. F. Stewig assisted with the arrangements.

The tea table, beautifully decorated with yellow and lavender chrysanthemums and fall flowers, was presided over by Mrs. Paul Jenkins, who poured.

Mrs. L. L. Bodie HONORED ON BIRTHDAY. Mr. and Mrs. James Vowel of Riverside entertained at a very delightful chicken dinner at their home Thursday evening, having as guests, Mr. and Mrs. L. L. Bodie. The occasion marked the eighty-fifth birthday of Mrs. Bodie.

Popular Couple Marry in Roseburg

Mr. and Mrs. Donald E. Bourassa

At a large and beautiful wedding, Miss Phronia Perry, lovely daughter of Mr. and Mrs. T. P. Perry of Roseburg, became the bride of Donald E. Bourassa, son of Mrs. W. H. Norcraft, Brockway, Sunday afternoon, October 29th at 3 o'clock at the First Baptist church in Roseburg. The ceremony was performed by Rev. H. P. Sconce, pastor of the church, in the presence of many friends and relatives.

The church was decorated with daphne, white chrysanthemums and ferns which filled the artistically arranged baskets at the altar with a lattice filled with English laurel, sprays of white chrysanthemums with white bells tied at the top. White candles in large candelabras on the rostrum completed the altar. Only the light from the many candles was used during the ceremony.

Preceding the ceremony, Mrs. Helen Saar played "O Promise Me" and "I Love You Truly."

Miss Patricia Weatherford, who was lovely in a floor length yellow gown, sang "Because" and Irving Berlin's "Always."

Mrs. Helen Saar, played the Bridal Chorus from Lohengrin for the bride party to advance to the altar. She played softly on the piano throughout the ceremony and at the close, played Mendelssohn's Wedding Recessional.

The entire wedding party wore crowns of various pastel shades. The bride's mother was charming in a plum colored afternoon dress with a black hat and a corsage of roses. The bridegroom's mother was attractive in a black afternoon dress with a black hat and a corsage of white carnations.

Following the ceremony, a reception was held at the home of the bride's parents on Military street. Colored zinnias and ferns decorated the rooms. The brides table, covered by a lovely lace cloth, was centered with a beautiful two-tier decorated wedding cake, topped by a lovely pink rose. Mrs. Mildred Christensen assisted with the serving. Guests were: Miss Mary Peterson, Miss Pat Weatherford, Mrs. Helen Saar, Mrs. Clark Smith, Mrs. Mildred Hughes and daughter, June Lee, Rev. and Mrs. H. P. Sconce and daughter, Peggy; Mr. and Mrs. Mark Brown, Mrs. C. P. Snoddy, Mrs. Houser, Mrs. Anna Peterson, Mrs. George Finley, Mr. and Mrs. W. P. Perry, Mrs. Georgia Gamble, Miss Dorothy Nelson, Portland; Clodene Daily, Eugene; Mrs. Mildred Christensen, aunt of bride, of Dunsmuir, Calif., and the host and hostesses, Mr. and Mrs. T. P. Perry and Mrs. G. W. Finley.

Wedding pictures taken at the wedding were by Mrs. C. W. Clark, of Clark's photo studio.

The bride and bridegroom are at home to their friends at 203 West Washington street, in Roseburg.
