Broken . . . Unbowed

This is what was left of the SS Valeri Chkalov, a Liberty ship, after it was swamped in two by a violent Arctic storm off the coast of Canada. The bow, miles away when this photo was taken, also was tossed to a Canadian port, where the two parts were pieced together and the vessel restored to war service as the Alexander Bennett, operated for the War Shipping Administration by American Mail Line, Inc., Seattle, Wash.

Roseburg Indians Defeat Reedsport Braves, 14 to 6

The Roseburg Indians won a hard earned decision from the Reedsport Braves by a score of 14 to 6 in a spectacular football game on Finlay field Friday night. The Indians kept their opponents on the defensive throughout the greater part of the battle.

Reedsport scored the first touchdown early in the second period after missing an earlier scoring opportunity when Dewitt broke through center for a 50-yard run to the Roseburg 5-yard line, where the Indians held for downs and kicked out to the 35. But the Braves were not to be denied and completed four successive passes to the Roseburg 3-yard stripe, from which point Dewitt and Mooney pushed out the necessary yardage for a touchdown, Mooney carrying the ball on the scoring play. A line plunge for the extra point fell short of the goal line.

The Indians promptly went out in front with a sustained march down the field, driving for four consecutive first downs to reach pay dirt, with Pollard packing the ball on the scoring play. James kicked the extra point to give Roseburg a lead of 7 to 6.

A penalty and fumble cost the Indians a scoring chance after recovering a Reedsport fumble as the first half ended. Pollard scores winner. Dressing room strategy during the rest period apparently was absorbed by the Indians, who returned to the field to punch over another touchdown in a series of plays following the kickoff, Pollard driving an 18-yard slant off tackle to score. James booted the ball through the uprights again for the extra point to put the Indians out in front 14 to 6.

Roseburg started another march down the field a few moments later, after Reedsport had failed to gain ground following the kickoff, but after driving from their own 8-yard line to the Reedsport 34, the attack bogged down.

A pass interception by Knigze in the opening of the fourth quarter robbed Reedsport of a scoring opportunity after Pollard's attempted punt was blocked and recovered by Reedsport in mid-field. Knigze intercepted Dewitt's pass intended for Diehl, but an offside penalty nullified a beautiful 14-yard run on the next play and Roseburg elected to punt the ball out of bounds on the Reedsport 10-yard stripe.

Coach Ingram substituted freely throughout the last quarter, giving all members of his squad a chance to play in the last home game, neither team making a serious scoring threat.

The Braves, playing their first game under lights, also were handicapped by the absence of Cairns, regular fullback, who suffered a sprained ankle in practice Thursday.

Pollard's kicking was an important factor in keeping Reedsport on the defensive, although Dewitt had the best of the averages due to one of Pollard's kicks being blocked. But the Roseburg kicker hit the coffin corner twice with well-placed boots, one going out of bounds on the Reedsport 1-yard line.

Army-Navy Grid Battle Switched to Baltimore

BALTIMORE, Nov. 18—(AP)—The Army and Navy switched their traditional football rivalry to Baltimore today.

Beyond the simple announcement that the Dec. 2 tilt, on which may hinge the national collegiate championship, would take place here before 71,000 fans instead of Annapolis, where 19,000 would have watched, there was little to be known or how much it would cost to see the fray.

Sixth War Loan drive officials said with confidence that a war bond purchase would be requisite for admittance with a ticket, but the Navy announced no such plan in laying down the rules for the mad scramble sure to develop for the much-prized duets, with the asking price standing at $4.80 each plus 25 cents for postage and handling and a limit of four to the applicant. Those details will be ironed out in Washington today.

Landis Offered 7 Years More as Baseball Czar

CHICAGO, Nov. 18—(AP)—Kenesaw Mountain Landis, who observes his 78th birthday Monday, can enforce his rigid rule over baseball until he is 86 years old—if he wants to accept the vote of confidence extended him yesterday by the American and National leagues.

A joint committee of the two circuits yesterday voted to recommend Landis' re-election as commissioner of baseball. The action scotched widespread rumors that a new authority would be proposed by the joint committee to supplant Landis, who was installed as commissioner 24 years ago.

Landis, in a hospital here since Oct. 2 for a physical check-up and rest, will finish his current term Jan. 12, 1946.
