CHRYSANTHEMUM EXHIBIT IS SUCCESSFUL EVENT OF ROSEBURG WOMAN'S CLUB

The 1944 annual chrysanthemum exhibit, sponsored by the Roseburg Woman's club, Friday and Saturday at the clubhouse, proved to be one of the most outstanding and successful to be held by the club.

Mrs. R. L. Whipple and Mrs. W. R. Brown were joint chairmen of the affair and were assisted by Mrs. R. W. Marsters, Mrs. Earl Plummer, Mrs. S. T. Smith, Mrs. G. V. Wimberly, Mrs. Randolph Flagg, Mrs. A. S. Coen, Miss E. L. V. Conover, Mrs. George K. Quine, Mrs. F. W. Chase, Mrs. J. Eastling, Mrs. Harry F. Hatfield, Mrs. H. O. Pargeter, Mrs. Len B. Fishback, Mrs. Velle Broadway, Mrs. I. B. Riddle, Mrs. J. D. Osborn, Mrs. Foster Butner, Mrs. A. G. Sutherland and Mrs. Louis Kohlhaas, Sr.

Exhibitors included: Mrs. L. L. Wimberly, Mrs. George Cluck, Mrs. Emma Howard, Mrs. O. R. Pollard, Mrs. John Whelan, Mrs. U. O. Vaughn, Mrs. B. J. Gilbert, Mrs. A. E. Kent, Mrs. B. L. Whipple, Mrs. Louis Kohlhaas, Sr., Mrs. P. E. Beaver, Rudolph Ritzman and H. B. Church.

Mrs. Wimberly and Mrs. Cluck submitted the largest exhibit of blooms, while Mrs. Emma Howard, who will celebrate her ninth birthday in January, had the largest Turners on display. Mr. Ritzman had one of the most perfect of the exhibits as every blossom displayed was in perfect form.

Mr. Ritzman also helped the committee by being present Friday evening to discuss the problems of growing the flowers and H. B. Church discussed the chrysanthemum raising with patrons attending the Saturday evening exhibit.

The exhibit is sponsored to promote interest in growing the blooms and Mrs. G. W. Cluck and Mrs. John Whelan have assisted the club greatly by showing large exhibits during the last several years.

Mrs. Whelan, who has been reported ill, did not show as large an exhibit this year, but Mrs. Cluck's exhibit included a great number of new varieties, not seen in previous exhibits here.

Already chrysanthemum enthusiasts are making plans for next year's exhibit.

Mrs. G. V. Wimberly, president of the club, has expressed her appreciation to all exhibitors as well as the public for cooperating to make the affair such a splendid success. Proceeds of the show will be used for philanthropic work of the club.

In addition to the chrysanthemums, Mrs. Kenneth Ford exhibited an Easter lily in full bloom and Mrs. Davison exhibited a lily spray in bloom.

LARGE NUMBER ATTEND CARNIVAL AT SCHOOL

GLIDE — A large crowd enjoyed the carnival held at the schoolhouse on Friday evening. A short program was presented in the auditorium consisting of songs, recitations and skits. Following the program everyone went to the gym where the bingo, dart throw, white elephant sale, fish pond, beauty parlor and telegram booths drew steady customers all evening. Hot dogs, cake, pie, coffee, cider and pop were well liked. A turkey donated by W. D. Van Horn was raffled off and was won by Mrs. A. B. Taylor. Approximately $210 was taken in and a substantial sum will be realized from the evening's entertainment.

CHURCH PARTY IS SUCCESSFUL AFFAIR

MYRTLE CREEK — The men and women of the local Christian church gave their annual party for the elderly people of the community last Tuesday afternoon. This is rapidly growing to be the high-light in the year's entertainment as the guests are all expected to have a part in the program.

As an additional feature this year all were asked to bring anything of interest in the way of relics, antiques, etc., and long before the party was opened the church basement looked like several booths of a county fair. The history of most of the articles was written by the owner and some interesting stories were told. Old copies of the first Myrtle Creek paper, "The Umpqua Beacon," owned and edited by Charles W. Rice and Thurman Chaney, published in '95 and several ensuing years, brought forth some surprising data. A number of old deeds, receipts and other things dated in the early '50s were displayed.

A 200-year-old violin polished and in good order was there, owned by William Russell, who is now in the service. A lovely old spinning wheel that had come around the horn was also exhibited. A marble and brass stand was given a place of honor. Beautiful quilts, some quilted and others unfinished, lined the walls. Fancy work and old dishes, quaint carved things made of rare wood, with many other articles, all showed how differently the pioneer ancestors lived here some 50 to 75 years ago.

A large crowd was present and enjoyed the program and the refreshments. Pastor and Mrs. Powell and everyone who helped in making the party a success, wish to thank those responsible for its success, and it is hoped the same measure of interest will be taken next year.

DAILY DEVOTIONS

DR. CHARLES A. EDWARDS

Christian witnessing is sorely needed today. The redeemed of the Lord ought to bear witness and to do so in no vague terms. A young man wanted to go and work in a logging camp many miles from home. His father knowing the type of men often found in such camps, tried to dissuade him. "You know," he said, "when those men find you are a Christian, they may make it uncomfortable for you. They may torment you, have fun at your expense." But the lad replied: "Don't worry, Dad. They will never find it out." We may smile at this, but how many of us are by our actions saying the same thing? Does the world know that we are Christians? Are we living examples and testimonies of the love and saving power of Jesus? May we have the courage and faith to go forth and tell the world what the Lord has done for us, and by doing so bring others to Him. "Whoever shall confess before men, I will also confess before my Father in heaven." Amen.

Nie Schartner, Mrs. Walter Thackrey and daughter Joanne, Mrs. Sam Thackrey, Mrs. Goldwyn Buell and daughter, Joyce, guest of honor, Mrs. Tiny Oliver and her children, Patsy and Daniel, and the hostess, Mrs. Helen Thackrey and daughters Karen and Marilyn.

First U. S. Orchestra

McGREGOR, Ia., Nov. 21.—(AP)—A rural school teacher was a bit startled by the statement in an examination paper that the pilgrims were an orchestra that came to this country. Summoning the writer, she inquired where he got the idea. "The book says so," he replied, pointing confidently to the sentence beginning "a band of pilgrims landed..."

The American Academy of Arts and Sciences is limited to 800 fellows and 130 foreign born honorary members.

DIAL-LOG

By SUSAN

I know this is going to make you very unhappy, so we'll just break the bad news without trying to soften the blow. No Fulton Lewis, Jr., broadcast tonight at 9:30. After this on Monday and Tuesday nights, we regret to state, we won't be able to carry the rebroadcast of your favorite commentator. Due to circumstances beyond our control—commercial commitments, et cetera—we will only be able to bring the evening broadcast to you on Wednesday, Thursday and Friday, and as of next Monday, that will be heard at 10 o'clock instead of the present 9:30 time. For the rest of this week, Mr. Lewis will be heard at his usual 9:30 time.

Now for the rest of the evening: There's Music You Remember at 6:30, the new "Something for the Girls" series beginning tonight at 7:30, Songs of Good Cheer 7:45, A Date With Annaloris at 8:15, and Freedom of Opportunity at 8:30. The story of Dr. Wassell, already made famous by the movie of the same name, will be dramatized on tonight's "Freedom" . . . and, may we suggest here, if it isn't past the children's bedtime, that this is an excellent program for juvenile listeners, since it's a cut above the usual production. Count of Monte Cristo at 10 o'clock rounds out tonight's programming.
