Marries in Medford, Oregon

Mrs. Irving Murison

Miss Patsy Adams, attractive daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Adams, residents of Greens, and Sergeant Irving Murison, son of George Murison, of Dillard, were quietly married at Medford, Oregon, November 20.

Sgt. Murison is stationed at Camp Stewart, Ga. As soon as he is stationed permanently, Mrs. Murison will join him.

BERTHA KOHLHAGEN TO REPRESENT WESTERN STATES AT CONFERENCE

Miss Bertha Kohlhausen, state supervisor of home economics education, state board of vocational education, Salem, has been asked by the United States office of education to go to Washington, D. C., for a special conference Nov. 17-Dec. 2 inclusive. Miss Kohlhausen will represent the state home economics supervisors of eleven western states in the discussions and plans for space and equipment of home economics departments.

Following the conference at Washington, D. C., she will go to Philadelphia, Pa., for a two-day conference, Dec. 4-5, on research in home economics education and will then attend the annual meeting of the American vocational association, December 6-1, which will also take place in Philadelphia. Before returning to Oregon, Miss Kohlhausen expects to spend five days in New York City and will return to Oregon about Dec. 18.

Miss Kohlhausen is very well known in Roseburg. She is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Louis Kohlhausen, Sr., who reside on Military street in this city. She was graduated from Roseburg high school and later from Oregon State college.

D. A. R. HAS FINE MEETING AT PAGE HOME MONDAY NIGHT

Miss Margaret Page and Mrs. D. N. Busenbark entertained the D. A. R. at a very lovely seven-thirty o'clock dessert-supper at the home of the former on Commercial avenue Monday evening. The Thanksgiving motif was very beautifully carried out in the decorations.
