Farmers Advised To Buy Tax Notes In 6th Bond Drive

How farmers may earn a good rate of interest on money set aside for taxes and at the same time materially assist the 6th War Loan drive was pointed out last week in a plan endorsed by the American Bankers' association War Loan committee, which suggested purchase of Series C tax notes during the coming war bond drive.

The committee drew attention to a provision of the Individual Income Tax Act of 1944, relating to payment of estimated 1944 tax by farmers, defined as those deriving two-thirds of their gross income from farming. The law has been postponed until Jan. 15, 1945, and full payment of farmers' estimated tax returns for 1944. Thus farmers advantageously may purchase Series C tax notes during the coming war bond drive, applying them on tax payments when due.

Attention was called to the fact that Series C notes will only be accepted as tax payment during and after the month of purchase. Purchase of Series C notes for payment of Jan. taxes, therefore, must be made on or before Nov. 30, 1944.
