R. H. S. Girls Assn. to Sell Christmas Seals

Members of the Roseburg High school Girls Athletic association will sell T. B. Christmas seals this week to students and also to the public desiring to aid this fund. The committee reports that the sale of the seals is progressing nicely, but the quota set for the association to sell had not been reached.

MARRIAGE LICENSES

CONN-DOWLING—Otto Francis Conn and Mildred Pauline Dowling, both residents of Roseburg.

DIVORCE COMPLAINTS

WHITE—Harold E. versus Ruth Mae White; married at Vancouver, Wash., June 14, 1943; cruelty.

Roseburg Theaters Offer Free Show To Bond Purchasers

Friday is free movie day. Buy a bond and get a free ticket to either Hunt's Indian or the Rose theatre. All you have to do to be admitted to the show free of charge is present proof at the box office that you have purchased a Series "E" war savings bond of any denomination since Tuesday of this week.

Mrs. Donn Radabaugh, acting manager of the two theatres, reports that the Sixth War Loan drive is the crucial drive—the one that points straight to Tokyo and the end of the war and that the theatre owners are gladly relinquishing their box-office receipts for the show today, as a tribute to their patriotic patrons who buy their bonds early. She states that it is not even necessary to buy these bonds through the theatre.

Mrs. Radabaugh says she knows it isn't necessary to offer these special inducements to persuade people of this community to buy bonds. People buy bonds as a patriotic duty and as a sound investment in the future of the U. S. A., and they want to lick the enemy and insure a prosperous postwar America. Continuing, Mrs. Radabaugh stated, that what she had in mind is a program to stimulate prompt buying and something that will act as a reminder to buy bonds today. Too many people mean to buy extra bonds, but put off the purchase to a later date, and special days act as a reminder and spur them to dig a little deeper.

Grant Moore, Ex-S. P. Employee Here, Passes

Grant Moore, formerly trainmaster for the Southern Pacific Railroad company with headquarters in Roseburg, died of a heart attack while in his office in San Francisco October 26, according to word received by friends.

Mr. Moore, who had moved with his wife and two sons, Grant, Jr., and Henry, to Menlo Park, Calif., a year ago, had gone to the S. P. office in San Francisco in good health the morning of his death. Funeral services were held at Menlo Park.

Hugh H. Payne, World War Veteran, Passes Away

Hugh H. H. Payne, 66, World war veteran resident of Kerby, Ore., died at the Veterans hospital here Wednesday afternoon. He was born September 1, 1878, in Canada, and came to the United States when only a few months old.

Surviving is a son, Albert Payne, of Cottage Grove. Military services will be held at the Veterans cemetery Friday afternoon at 3:30 o'clock. Arrangements are in charge of the Douglas Funeral home.

Logging Contract Case Still on Trial Here

Circuit court continued today with the suit of H. J. Smith versus the Bridge Lumber company, an action involving a logging contract. The trial was expected to have reached earlier conclusion, but, due to a great amount of technical detail, is continuing to take much court time. The plaintiff is seeking money for logs delivered, claiming non-payment, while the plaintiff, in a counter suit, alleges contract terms were not fulfilled and is seeking damages.

ATTENTION POULTRYMEN

We have been unable to get government wheat, and in order to have feed wheat at all have been compelled to purchase free wheat at a cost of 30c per bushel or $10 per ton higher than government owned wheat. This not only advances wheat 50c per 100 pounds, but all mixed feeds that contain ground wheat.

We hope this condition is soon overcome by Commodity Credit Corporation, but until it is, there is nothing we can do about it.
