

Sunday at the Churches

DAILY DEVOTIONS

DR. CHARLES A. EDWARDS

Nationwide Bible Reading. More than ever before, men and women in the armed forces and at home have been turning to the Bible for inspiration and guidance. Here is both a challenge and a golden opportunity to all Christians. Through active participation in, and promotion of nationwide Bible reading every day from Thanksgiving to Christmas, you not only serve to create a deeper spiritual bond between our fighting forces and our people at home, you will help make the Bible a greater spiritual force in our own national life, strengthening us for the difficult task ahead. Join in the daily reading of the 33 Bible passages selected by a nationwide canvass of pastors and chaplains as being most helpful in times like these. Send a program to your loved ones, wherever they are, that they may join with you in reading the same inspiring messages. Join with the other church members of your community in seeing to it that local civic and religious organizations participate in this program. It is most heartening to know that I have received from our boys at the front, the inspiration they receive from the reading of God's Word. Amen.
