MISSIONARY TALKS AT MEETING THURSDAY

SUTHERLIN — The Women's Society of Christian Service was entertained at the Methodist church parlors Thursday afternoon, honoring the visit of Miss Mildred Simonds, missionary from India, who has been in that country for thirty-seven years.

The meeting opened by singing "Oh Come All Ye Faithful" and Hark the Herald Angels Sing" in unison.

Quartet, "Oh Little Town of Bethlehem" by Mrs. Tom Ridgeway, Mrs. William C. Woods, Mrs. A. P. Slack and Rev. Mr. Matthews, with Mrs. A. P. Slack at the piano.

Scripture reading, "The Christmas Story as Told in the Bible" by Rev. Mr. Matthews.

"Christmas in Holland" followed by prayer and the Lord's prayer in Dutch, by Rev. R. A. Feenstra.

Quartet, "It Came Upon the Midnight Clear" by Mrs. Ridgeway, Mrs. Woods, Mrs. Slack and Rev. Mr. Matthews.

Trumpet quartet, "Silent Night" and "We Three Kings of the O. and R." by Donald Squier, Betty Madox, Jimmy Lang, William Hardesty and Rev. Mr. Matthews, accompanied at the piano by Miss Irma Martin.

A very interesting talk on India, the way the people live and the different castes, who accept our Christmas and have feasts at that time, which consists of rice and curry, and the way they teach them to read and be able to teach the Bible to their people, was told by Miss Mildred Simonds.

The exchange of Christmas gifts was enjoyed after the program. The room was prettily decorated in Christmas colors by the decorating committee, Mrs. Hartshorn and Mrs. Parker.

The hostesses of the day, Mrs. Harold Jones, Mrs. C. C. Watson, Mrs. Glen Baker and Mrs. Aldridge, served a delicious luncheon to Rev. R. A. Feenstra, Rev. Mr. Matthews and mother, Mrs. Miranda French, Mrs. Anna Hall, Mrs. Brittain Slack, Mrs. Jesse Cooper, Mrs. Savilla Bamber, Mrs. Andy Leeper, Mrs. Marshall Parazoo, Mrs. Wilson Hartshorn, Mrs. Ray Parker, Mrs. James Lang, Jr., and son Jerry, Mrs. Wm. C. Woods and son Donny, Mrs. Hodgson, Mrs. H. Merriman, Mrs. LeRoy Jones, Mrs. Nellie Parker, Mrs. Orville French, Mrs. Stillwell, Mrs. P. A. Comstock, Mrs. Nellie Wall, Mrs. A. P. Slack, Mrs. Chase, Mrs. Carl Fouts, Mrs. Henry Barge, Mrs. Mary Selleck, Miss Sheffel, Mrs. John Musgrove, Mrs. Tom Ridgeway, Mrs. Sarepta Saucerman, Mrs. Jaeger, Mrs. May Brown, Mrs. Woods and the hostesses, Mrs. C. C. Watson and children, Mrs. Harold Jones and daughter, Betty Jane, Mrs. Glen Baker, and Mrs. Aldridge and daughter Sharon Lee. The collection of this meeting was given to Miss Simonds to be used for missionary work.

At the close of the meeting Rev. Mr. Matthews and his mother, were presented with a beautiful set of dishes by Mr. and Mrs. John Musgrove. The regular meeting of the W. S. of C. S. will be held on Thursday, Dec. 21.

MR. AND MRS. DULLEY ENTERTAIN AT DINNER

SUTHERLIN — Mr. and Mrs. Grant Dulley entertained at a very lovely chicken dinner at seven o'clock Wednesday evening at their home at the Sutherlin homes.

Colorful fall flowers formed a pretty motif for the occasion. Covers were placed for: Mr. and Mrs. Fritz Hollemon and daughter Ellen, and the host and hostess, Mr. and Mrs. Dulley and three sons, Garry, David and Danny. The pleasant evening was spent in visiting.

RED CROSS PARTY TO BE HELD ON FRIDAY

The ladies of Drew and Tiller, who have been working for many months for the American Red Cross, will be entertained at a delightful Christmas party Friday afternoon to be given by the South Umpqua branch of the American Red Cross. This party is being given by the South Umpqua branch in appreciation of the splendid work having been accomplished for the organization by the women of the two communities.

COMMUNITY CLUB HONORS MUSICIANS

YONCALLA — The Elkhead community sponsored a turkey dinner Sunday in the community hall honoring the musicians who have so graciously and generously given of their time and talents to the various social gatherings of the club. About 75 friends were seated at the long table and the honored guests were Paul Allen, Mrs. Lloyd Pinkston, Mr. and Mrs. Earl Davis, Mr. and Mrs. D. O. Record, Percy Langdon, Miss Barbara Hourer, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Grubbe, Mrs. Annie Kruse. Miss Vera Thompson and Mrs. George Edes, who assist at the gatherings, were unable to attend.

During the afternoon the Elkhead grange installed their new officers for the coming year. Brother Chas. Wicklander, state deputy installing officer, Bro. C. O. Patterson, county deputy and Sister Patterson were ceremonial marshals and emblem bearer. Brother Tipton of Riverside grange assisted. Sister Wicklander was pianist. After the installation ceremony Brother Wicklander gave some valuable information on the work done by the grange and a brief outline of the programe for 1945. Among the many visitors to this ceremony a number were so impressed that a gain of 10 new members was made.

The community service men's flag in the Elkhead community hall now has 27 names. The grange has written a letter to each man, and members and friends of the boys are signing the letters and adding a brief greeting to the boys who are representing this neighborhood in the front lines.

LOOKINGGLASS P.-T. A. HAS FINE MEETING

LOOKINGGLASS—The Lookingglass P.-T. A. met at the school house Friday for their regular business session. The Christmas program and decorations were discussed. Mrs. Adair, principal, asked for a truckload of trees and greenery to decorate the gym for the Christmas program. Harvey Dysert volunteered the use of his truck and some of the high school boys volunteered their services in cutting the trees. There has been a P.-T. A. membership drive on at the school for the past month with keen competiton between the rooms. Mrs. Addir's room, seventh and eighth grades, tied with Mrs. Richards' room, first and second grades, for first place. So a party was promised to both rooms. After the business session, Mrs. Holt's room, third and fourth grades, put on a demonstration of how they study their arithmetic and social science. This proved very interesting to the parents S. I-e Joe Green then agreed to answer any questions about his experiences in the south Pacific war area, that he could, without giving out any secret military information. The meeting was then adjourned by the president, Mrs. Helen Schulz.

RIVERSDALE GRANGE TO MEET AT POTLUCK SUPPER

Riversdale grange will hold its quarterly birthday potluck supper meeting at 6:30 Friday night at the hall. Edenbower members will have charge of the kitchen. The regular meeting will follow the supper.
