HOLIDAY ENTERTAINMENTS PLANNED FOR COMMUNITY

CAMAS VALLEY — Various plans have been made to entertain the community during the coming holiday season. Everyone is invited and urged to participate, whether old timers or new comers. It is impossible to give everyone a personal invitation to each gathering, but each and all are welcome. Please come and pass the word along to your neighbors.

The school program will be given on the Wednesday night before Christmas and neighbors as well as parents are invited. The community turkey feed and Christmas tree will be held the following night, Thursday, at the Skaggs hall. If you have not already given to the fund, leave your donation at the store, and then come and have a good time. Sunday night, Christmas eve, everyone who can sing is urged to join with the chorus to sing carols from house to house. Those who desire the singers to stop at their homes, are to place a lighted candle in a window. Singers bring a flashlight if you don't know all the words of the familiar carols.

P.T.A. HOLDS MEETING WEDNESDAY

CAMAS VALLEY — The P.T.A. held its monthly meeting at the school house Wednesday night. By-laws were adopted and Guy Moore elected historian. Mr. Bromley reported that the projector has been ordered and Mrs. Jones reported the cups had been received for the dining room. It was decided to buy seventy-five bowls for serving hot lunches. The entertainment committee reported a card party is planned for the night of January tenth—the proceeds to go on the projector fund. A program of instrumental and vocal music and readings was presented after which refreshments were served in the dining room. The next meeting will be January third.
