Basketball Tilt Tonight to Mark Debut of Indians
Basketball fans of the Roseburg area will get their first glimpse tonight of the Indian basketball squad for the 1944-45 season, when the Grants Pass Cavemen play the Indians on the Roseburg high school court. Grants Pass has a slight edge in experience, with a complete first team of lettermen. Roseburg will have three of last season's lettermen in the lineup. The Indians lack height, as compared with last year's tall team, but should show plenty of speed and fight, Coach Mel Ineram reports.
Season tickets will be on sale at the high school box office tonight, as not all of the 200 allotted seats have been purchased to date. Season tickets, limited to 200, will entitle holders to occupy a reserved section of the gymnasium seats, the section to be held each game night until 8 p. m.
Tonight's basketball game will be preceded by a volleyball contest between Roseburg and Grants Pass girls.

Spurs From Jap Plane Gift of Roseburg Soldier
A pair of handsomely engraved aluminum spurs, manufactured from a Jap Zero, knocked down over Guam in Aug. 1944, has been sent home by Corporal Elmer Clark, son of Mr. and Mrs. Walter M. Clark, Roseburg. Corporal Clark, a mechanic in a tank battalion, reports he rejected $300 for the spurs.
The spurs are most artistically engraved, carrying some of the most famed brands and pictures of wild horses.
Corporal Clark, who went overseas in the early spring of this year, recently was transferred from Guam to the Philippines.

To our Friends—GREETINGS!
As the months roll along and bring us ever closer to Victory, we believe it is fitting for us to express our appreciation of your patience and thoughtfulness during the trying year that is now coming to a close.
The great demands of our Armed Forces, combined with the manpower and material shortages, have made it very difficult for us this year to serve our old friends as faithfully and efficiently as we would have liked and feel they deserved.
Your loyal support and friendship, in spite of our shortcomings, are our most treasured possessions, and we want to take this opportunity to express our gratitude and to assure you that we will strive to deserve a continuation of your confidence and support in the years to come.
It is with such thoughts in mind that we extend to you our best wishes for as happy a Yuletide season as is possible in times of war, and a New Year that will bring Victory and everything else that you may desire.
Cordially Yours, L. E. and A. G. Henninger
