Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Fullerton

Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Fullerton, prominent Roseburg residents, celebrated their golden wedding anniversary Tuesday evening.

The Fullertons are the parents of eleven children, ten of whom are living and include: Mrs. Ethel McMullen, Portland; Corwin Fullerton, Roseburg; Mrs. J. L. Roberts (Claire), San Francisco, and her twin, Clyde Fullerton, Roseburg; Ralph Fullerton, Salem; Louis J. Fullerton, Roseburg; Mrs. Adrain Fisher, Roseburg; Mrs. Jack (Ruth) Kirkham, Portland; Emmett Fullerton, naval air forces serving on a carrier in the Atlantic, and his twin, Mrs. Kenneth (Emma) Good, of Redding, Calif.

The holiday motif was very attractively carried out in the rooms, while the dining table, covered by a very beautiful cloth, was centered by a bowl of gold-colored chrysanthemums, a tall ivory tapers and a lovely decorated wedding cake.

Mrs. Clyde Fullerton, a daughter, poured and Mrs. Jack Kirkham, Portland, another daughter, served the wedding cake. Many beautiful gifts and cards were presented to the guests of honor.

Ida May Howard and J. B. Fullerton were married in Canyonville, December 19, 1894, and resided there until moving to Roseburg about 20 years ago. They make their home at 824 Templin street. They are members of the Methodist church and Mr. Fullerton is Douglas county bailiff.

Mr. and Mrs. John Arzner, who are now residents of Riddle, were married on the same date as the Fullertons and had hoped to spend the day with them, but were unable to be present.

The Twelve and Won club enjoyed its annual Christmas party at a delicious potluck luncheon Tuesday at the home of Mrs. Eunice Sory. The holiday motif was carried out in the decorations. Bernardine Prinzen acted as Santa Claus and presented a gift to each member and guest.

A short business meeting was held and Mrs. Hargis was welcomed into the club as a new member. Visiting and games were enjoyed with Margaret Ritzman winning the high prize and Mary Prinzen winning the low prize.

Those present were: Mrs. Hargis, Mrs. Mary Prinzen, Mrs. Arzner, Trozelle, Mrs. Catherine West, Mrs. Lucy Jennings, Mrs. Jane Moran, a guest, Mrs. Hallie Richardson, Miss Bernardine Prinzen and the hostess, Mrs. Sory. The next meeting will be a one o'clock luncheon at the home of Miss Bernardine Prinzen at 231 Chadwick street, Jan 9.

Marry in Roseburg

Mr. and Mrs. Albert A. Niday

Mr. and Mrs. Albert A. Niday celebrated their golden wedding anniversary at a large and delightful affair from two-thirty to five o'clock Friday, December 15, at their home on West First street, at which time their five children were present.

A beautiful lace cloth covered the table, which was centered by a bouquet of gold-colored chrysanthemums from Mrs. E. H. Verrell. A three-tiered decorated wedding cake was flanked by tall gold-colored tapers. Beautiful bouquets of chrysanthemums, grown by a daughter, Mrs. Ernest Trussell, were arranged about the rooms.

Mrs. George Niday, Mrs. Floyd Hagerty, Mrs. Glendon Davenport and Mrs. Ernest Trussell alternated in pouring and serving. Relatives and friends called, signed an attractive guest book. Many beautiful gifts and cards were presented to Mr. and Mrs. Niday.

During the afternoon Billy and Lois Ross, son and daughter, of Rev. and Mrs. W. Ross, sang.

Mary Emma Wilson and Albert A. Niday were married at Independence, Kansas, December 15, 1894. Mr. Niday was born in 1885 at Calhoun, Mo., and Mrs. Niday was born in Smith county, Kansas, 1877.
