RHS Quint Loses To Grants Pass By 32-to-22 Score

The Roseburg Indians have definitely developed a three-quarter pace, as shown in their basketball games so far this season. They lost a game 32 to 22 in the fourth period at Grants Pass Saturday after staying in the running for three periods. Slow on the start, Roseburg was trailing 10 to 10 in the first period, but by half-time had a one-point lead, 13 to 12. Grants Pass had a 20-to-16 margin going into the final frame, and lengthened the lead when the pace was accelerated in the final minutes of play.

The Indians had particular difficulty in hitting the basket, taking 67 shots of which only nine went in for counters. The Indians will play their next three games away from home, going to Cottage Grove for a league game on the 9th and to Eugene for a league match on the 12th followed by a non-conference game at Myrtle Point on the 13th. Home games will be played Friday and Saturday, January 19 and 20, the first against Junction City, a conference opponent, and the second a King's-X contest at Coos Bay.

Recreational Card Goes Into Second Week in Roseburg

Starting with the women's volleyball class at 7:30 tonight the adult recreation program goes into the second week of operation. The volleyball group will meet under the supervision of Miss Dorothy Larkin in the junior high school gym. It is open to anyone who has played before or who is interested in learning the game. The hours are from 7:30 to 9:30 p. m. each Monday.

Meeting again on Tuesday is the leather tooling class with U. F. McLaughlin in charge. Last week 19 adults turned out for this class. This group meets in room No. 212 in the junior high school at 7:30 p. m.

Also meeting Tuesday night is the badminton group from Melrose and Garden Valley with Mrs. Vivian Kershner as supervisor in the gym. Although this group is large, it is still open to anyone who cannot attend the Wednesday night session. On Wednesday night badminton is scheduled for Roseburg residents and for beginners. This group is small and unless a larger turnout occurs next week it will be discontinued.

The men's volleyball group will meet on Thursday at 5:15 p. m. instead of Wednesday, as scheduled last week. This has been changed so as not to interfere with the Lions club, which has a meeting Wednesday evening. H. H. Turner in charge of this group, is making plans for a tournament providing the turnout is large enough.

Plans for other classes will be announced next week. The success of this recreation program depends upon the number of participants and the public is urged to request to attend and to ask friends to join the various classes. As the program is operated on federal funds, it is necessary to keep up to a certain attendance in each meeting. The outcome of the first three months' program will determine whether or not more federal aid will be provided for this community.

Government Opens Court Battle in Ward Seizure

CHICAGO, Jan. 8.—(AP)—The government asked the federal court today to restrain Montgomery Ward and company from alleged interference with army operations of 16 company properties in several cities, contending a situation existed which "threatens the outcome of the war."

Hugh B. Cox, assistant solicitor general, began the government arguments for an injunction in the courtroom of Federal Judge Philip L. Sullivan, packed with leading Chicago lawyers and virtually all the principals in the company-labor-government controversy.

At the outset government and company counsel agreed to defer temporarily argument on the merits of the case in which the government seeks a declaratory judgment to establish legality of the seizure Dec. 28. They proceeded on the injunction question itself.

A poll of informed sources reveals little optimism that larger rations of lumber for civilians can be expected in the near future.

Opinion is unanimous that the lumber industry met all its military obligations on the nail during 1944, despite a production decline of possibly 10 or 12 per cent from the previous year. The civilian took the rap to make up that deficit. All are confident that military requirements will be met during 1945, unless depletion of manpower and progressive deterioration of equipment results in more serious loss of production than now appears likely.

No decrease in the volume requisitioned by the government is anticipated while the war continues in both theatres, and the various items will be ordered in approximately the same proportions as during the last half of '44. The emphasis during 1944 was on boards due to the shift from construction to packaging. More boards are being produced than ever before in the history of the industry and still more are being demanded.

War Needs Not Lessened
In total, approximately 70 to 80 per cent of all lumber production during 1944 went directly or indirectly into the war, and that proportion is seen continuing through '45 unless there is a sharp letup in the actual fighting. The biggest single item in the estimated figures of lumber consumption in 1944 is packaging (boxing, crating, and dunnage)—approximately 45 per cent. Civilian construction (which may or may not be an indirect war use) accounts for about 30 per cent; military uses and factory products (probably mostly military) make up the 25 per cent balance.

The military services have stockpiles of lumber at various points, but no excess. Both army and navy have been working to reduce surpluses and it is considered unlikely that any of these stocks are large enough to cause termination of government orders.

No relaxation of lumber control regulations is anticipated. If the war continues through 1945, although they might be eased gradually if the European phase should end during the year.

The market situation which brought about War Production Board Order L-335 in August continues, and it is generally felt that L-335 is being intelligently administered and is accomplishing its purpose. The individuals pooled could suggest no alternate supplies or adjustments in the current regulations that might result in greater supplies reaching the domestic market.

No large shipments of lumber to Europe for rehabilitation following the defeat of Germany are expected. This is largely a problem of shipping space which will be urgently needed in the Pacific. Also, Europe will be able to re-establish its old lumber sources—Sweden, Finland, and Russia—quickly, and Britain will draw on Canada.

No reconversion difficulties are anticipated at war's end, and it is expected that the industry will be prepared for the boom home building market with adequate supplies of dry lumber of good quality before the builders are ready to absorb it. It is pointed out that an estimated five-billion-dollar home repair job is ready to fill the time lapse between the end of the war and the return to the market of other home building essentials such as plumbing. Dairy farmers alone can use a large volume of lumber immediately that it is available to them.

OPA Price Talks Dated in Roseburg and Canyonville

Two meetings have been scheduled by the OPA for the merchants of the Roseburg area and the Canyonville board area with representatives from the district office in Portland to discuss pricing problems in the furniture, hardware, and automotive fields. Merchants and all other persons from Glendale, Azalea, Drew, Tiller, Days Creek, Milo, Riddle and Myrtle Creek, who are interested in establishing ceiling prices under the general maximum price regulation are requested to attend this meeting.

Another meeting is scheduled for merchants of Roseburg, Oakland, Sutherlin, Glide, Camas Valley and other points in the circuit court room in the Douglas county court house at 8 p. m. Monday, January 15. J. K. Hubbard, price specialist, industrial materials and equipment section, and Harry Huddleston, price specialist consumer durable goods section, will each discuss their respective subjects. After that there will be a round table discussion of pricing problems in which questions will be answered. As much farm machinery comes under OPA price control, farmers contemplating either buying or selling machinery are invited to participate.
