Sgt. and Mrs. Melvin A. Hagood

A wedding of much interest in Roseburg is that of Miss Patricia Glenn, only daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. D. Glenn, of Roseburg, and Sgt. Melvin A. Hagood, of Camp Bowie, Tex., son of Mr. and Mrs. Alvin A. Hagood, of Ontario, Oregon, at Brownwood, Texas, at six-thirty o'clock at the parsonage of the First Presbyterian church on December 15.

Tall red tapers lighted and sprays of ivy were used in the decorations. Following the song, "I Love You Truly," the double ring ceremony was performed by the pastor of the church. The bride was very beautiful in an afternoon gown of powder blue with a fuchsia hat. Her corsage was of gardenias. The bride's mother was attractive in an ensemble of royal blue with matching accessories and a corsage of Talisman roses.

Guests attending included the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. D. Glenn, of Roseburg; Lt. and Mrs. Jerry Herburger, of John Day, Ore.; Lt. and Mrs. Frank Knox, of Eugene, and Sgt. Jerry Sparlin, of Grants Pass.

Following the ceremony, a lovely wedding supper was served at the Hotel Brownwood at a table decorated in the Christmas motif and tall red tapers.

The bride and bridegroom will make their home in Brownwood, Texas, until the later is sent overseas, at which time the bride will return to Oregon State college to complete her senior year in the school of home economics.

The bride, who was graduated from Roseburg high school in 1941, has been outstanding and very prominent student at Oregon State college the last four years. Besides being an honor student, she is the first girl editor of the college newspaper, the Barometer, a position, which she now holds. She is a member of Sigma Kappa sorority. Mortar Board and is president of Theta Sigma Phi, national journalism sorority. Prior to entering the army, Sgt. Hagood was a student at Oregon State college and is affiliated with Alpha Gamma Rho fraternity. He is now in the armored field artillery at Camp

Marry at Impressive Ceremony

Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Krohn

Miss Hazel Doerner, lovely daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Adolph Doerner, became the bride of Ralph Krohn, MM 1/c, U. S. navy reserve, son of Mr. and Mrs. John Krohn of Roseburg, at an impressive ceremony performed by Dr. C. A. Edwards at two-thirty o'clock Tuesday afternoon, January 16, at the lovely home of the bride's parents in Melrose.

Bouquets of chrysanthemums formed an attractive setting for the ceremony. The wedding music was played by Mrs. Frederick Becker, sister of the bridegroom. The bride, who was given in marriage by her father, was very lovely in a light blue afternoon dress with a strand of pearls (a gift from the bridegroom) and a corsage of gardenias and carnations. Miss Marie Krohn, of Portland, was maid of honor, and was attractive in a blue frock with a corsage of carnations. Ray C. Doerner, signalman, U. S. coast-guard, acted as best man for his brother.

Both mothers wore ensembles of blue with corsages of gardenias.

A reception followed with Mrs. F. B. Douglas and Mrs. Clyde Hammond assisting in the serving. The wedding cake, topped by a miniature bride and sailor bridegroom, was cut by the bride and bridegroom.

Following a wedding trip, the couple will reside in Roseburg during the bridegroom's leave, after which they will go to Seattle, where the bridegroom will be temporarily stationed. For traveling the bride chose a blue wool suit with a fur coat and black accessories.

Guests attending the wedding were: Mr. and Mrs. Adolph Doerner, parents of the bride; Mr. and Mrs. John Krohn and Mrs. Susan Woodruff, parents and grandmother of the bridegroom; Mr. and Mrs. Frederick Becker and daughters, Frances and Joyce, of Junction City; Mr. and Mrs. Ray E. Doerner and son, Douglas, of Hansville, Wash.; Miss Marie and Miss Ruth Krohn, of Portland; Mr. and Mrs. Ralph C. Knickerbocker, of Coos Bay, and Mr. and Mrs. Henry Krohn, Sr., Mrs. Henry Krohn, Jr., Helen Krohn, Bert Krohn, Mr. and Mrs. F. R. Douglas, Wallace Murdoch and Mrs. Clyde Hammond, all of Roseburg.

The bride was graduated from Roseburg high school and has been employed by Hansen Motors for the last several years. The bridegroom was employed by the Roseburg Lumber company, prior to his enlistment in the navy, February 1942. He has been serving overseas for three years and this is his first leave home. Both the bride and bridegroom have resided in Douglas county their entire lives.

MRS. W. E. MORAN IS COMPLIMENTED AT LOVELY PINK AND BLUE SHOWER
