ROSE P. T. A. TO SPONSOR HOT-LUNCH PROJECT AT SCHOOL

A special meeting of the Rose P. T. A. was called for Monday night at the schoolhouse to discuss the hot-lunch project which is to begin at the school Feb. 12. Mrs. Vernon Keel is acting as chairman of the committee.

Mrs. Young, teacher of the Edenbower school; Mrs. Ella Herblison, cook; Mrs. C. R. Bartlett, chairman of the hot-lunch project, and Mrs. Niday, president of the Edenbower Mothers club were present to discuss with the Rose P. T. A. members the hot-lunch project. They reported that the project had been very successful in the Edenbower school. Almost $100 was taken in to start the project and the Edenbower ladies donated the balance of money to make an even $100. Dr. Morris H. Roach gave a fine talk on the project and Paul Elliott, superintendent of the Roseburg schools, and Mrs. Lula Gorrell, Douglas county school superintendent, were in attendance.

Plans were made by the P. T. A. to hold a kitchen shower for the school kitchen at the schoolhouse at 7:30 o'clock next Tuesday evening. Mrs. Dorothy Rapp, Portland, representative of the government food program, will be present to assist the members in starting the hot-lunch project. All members are urged to be present.
