Former Roseburg Girl Weds

Corporal and Mrs. Bud Nelson

Decorated in white carnations, gladioli and stock, the home of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Porter of Reseda, California, was the setting for a lovely double ring ceremony on Friday, January 26, at two o'clock when their daughter, Miss Wilma Porter, became the bride of Cpl. Bud Nelson, son of Mrs. Eula Nelson of Glendora, California. Rev. Lewis George of Van Nuys, California officiated.

The bride was lovely in a teal blue dress with brown accessories. Her corsage was gardenias and white hyacinths, and she carried a white Bible. The maid of honor, Miss Dorene Pope of Roseburg, wore a dress with brown accessories; her corsage was of Chinese lilies.

The groom was attended by Donald Porter, the bride's brother.

as her guests: Mrs. A. C. Fries, China lilies formed an attractive centerpiece. The bride and groom were the center of attention.

High score for the evening's contract bridge play was won by Mrs. Parr.
