Marry in Corvallis

Lt. and Mrs. J. K. Underhill, Jr.

At one-fifteen o'clock Wednesday, December 27, in the parsonage of Calvary Evangelical church, Miss Dorothy May Elliott, attractive daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Elliott of Canyonville, became the bride of Lt. John Kenneth Underhill, Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. John K. Underhill, of Summit. Officiating at the double ring ceremony was the bride's brother, Rev. F. G. Elliott, assisted by Rev. E. A. Fogg. Just the immediate families were present.

The bride was attractive in a powder blue two-piece wool suit with matching accessories and a corsage of pink roses. She was attended by Miss Maxine Underhill, sister of the bridegroom, who wore a light blue suit with a corsage of white carnations. H. E. Underhill acted as best man to his brother.

Following the wedding, the bride and bridegroom left on their honeymoon to be spent at coast points, after which the latter reported to his assigned base and was transferred overseas.

The bride was graduated from Oregon State college and is now a teacher of home economics in the Forest Grove high school. The bridegroom also attended Oregon State college before entering the service. He received his commission upon being graduated from armored forces officers candidate school at Fort Knox, Kentucky, last September.
