VALENTINE BANQUET IS HELD BY B. P. W. C. ON MONDAY EVENING

The Business and Professional Women's club held its annual Valentine party in the form of a banquet at the Umpqua hotel on Monday evening at which the auxiliary members were also present.

The chairman for the evening was Mrs. Laura Iles, assisted by Mrs. Emily Judd, Mrs. Stella Spencer and Mrs. Kathryn Kenney.

The speaker's table was decorated by an attractive centerpiece of pussy willows, to which were attached red Valentine hearts. The tables were attractively arranged and decorated with streamers of ivy interspersed with red candles. Hearts were scattered profusely over the tables.

Group singing of many popular songs was led by Mrs. Arlene Myers.

The meeting was opened by an address of welcome by the president of the club, Mrs. Helen Saar followed by a violin solo by Naomi Scott, Traumerel.

Madlyn Stearns gave a beautiful portrayal of a "Valentine Dance" and as an encore gave an interpretive dance "Patterned After a Woman's Mind," which is a new form of advertising taken from a clipping of a special edition. She was accompanied on the piano by Helen Saar.

Some new talent has been discovered in Roseburg in the person of Marvin Wilson, who has a delightful voice and sang "With a Song" "I Had a Little Talk With the Lord" and responded with an encore "Old Man River." He was accompanied by Helen Saar.

An interesting Valentine skit was portrayed by Helen Casey and Jessie Wagner in song and dancing. "The Sweetest Story Ever Told" which was thoroughly enjoyed. Madlyn Stearns and Helen Casey amused the group by singing and dancing "My Sweetheart Is the Man in the Moon," and "Little Annie Rooney" being attired in old-time costumes.

Mrs. Kathryn Kenney read the "Collect of the Club," which was followed by the salute to the flag and singing of "God Bless America" by the group.

Mrs. Stella Spencer conducted a unique way of introducing the guests present, by having the husbands and gentlemen friends present introduce their wives and guests and tell where they first met them and when.

Group singing was again led by Arlene Myers and ended with "Sing Your Way Home" and many compliments were given to the group in charge of the affair for the lovely dinner and program.

Members and guests present were: Mrs. Edna May Hayward, Helen Shanklin, Mrs. Eugene A. Springer, Mrs. Roland B. Springer, Verna Carothers, Vera Fredrickson, Martha Perry, Goldie Bruner, Lynn Skinner, Alvina S. Wetherell, Frieda Child, Lester C. Child, Gladys R. Alken, Ila Laubach, Margaret Nelson, Gertrude Metzger, Hazel Dixon, Esther Brown, Gladys Shellen, Florence Lozier, Earl Lozier, Helen Westfall, Amanda Anderson, Carmen Abel, Vivian Logsdon, Gladys Strong, Naomi Scott, Arlene Myers, Mrs. Marvin Wilson, Marvin Wilson, Helen Saar, Stella Spencer, Sue Parkinson, Katherine Kenney, E. R. Kenney, Laura Iles, Store Iles, Minnie Iles, Naomi Cushman, Emily E. Judd, Beas Stark, Mildred Henson, Loren Pease, Jessie Waggoner, Madlyn Stearns, Helen Casey, Dolma Grobe, L. J. Barnes, Mattie Gosnell, Mrs. M. F. Rice, Ruth Hodson, Ruth Roberts, Peace Fox, Edna Jones, Mary Moore, Arlene Thompson, Margaret Atherton, Helen Neal, Thelma Young, Elza Krokke, Marion H. Brand and C. A. Brand.

Mrs. Sue Parkinson gave the "History of Valentine Day" and as toast mistress passed much hilarity with the amusing jokes and stories which she told.

CONCERT ASSOCIATION TO HEAR FOUR GREAT ARTISTS ON FEB. 23

Four great American artists, comprising the Bary Ensemble, will present the next concert of the Roseburg Community Concert association to be heard in Roseburg at 8:15 o'clock next Friday night, Feb. 23, at the Junior high school auditorium.

Miss Gertrude Bary, pianist; Miss Laura Wren, flutist; Miss Mary Becker, violinist; and Miss Virginia Peterson, cellist, who are all recognized as famous musicians in their own respective rights, will present the concert. Much of the music to be heard in their program has been arranged by the four artists themselves. This will be the first concert to be sponsored by the association to feature so many great artists in one performance and members are anticipating the concert with the greatest of pleasure.
