Jap Prison Ship With 1,800 Yanks Reported Sunk

WASHINGTON, Feb. 16—(AP)—Reports that a Japanese prison ship carrying approximately 1,800 Americans was torpedoed and mysteriously sunk last October has been given to the War department by five survivors.

The department, disclosing this today, emphasized that it has received no confirmation from the Japanese but has asked for the names of the prisoners who might have been aboard such a vessel.

"No response has been received up to this time," a department statement said.

The sinking, if confirmed, would be the second involving Japanese prison ships carrying allied prisoners. Last September 7 a ship carrying approximately 700 prisoners was torpedoed off Mindanao in the Philippines.

There were only 53 survivors.

The War department said it is continuing its efforts to confirm the second sinking and that as soon as necessary data has been received next of kin will be notified.
