FARMERS WILL RECEIVE NATIONAL PUBLICATION

Many farmers of the Roseburg community in the next few days will receive a copy of the Golden Anniversary issue of "The Furrow", national farm publication, published by John Deere, Moline, Ill.

Marking 50 years' continuous publication, devoted to the interest and advancement of agriculture, "The Furrow" has been read by several local farmers for many years. Those from here who have been readers the greatest number of years include, H. P. Conn, Busenbark Bros., Roy Hatfield, Interstate Tractor and Equipment Co., local John Deere dealer said.

Articles in this special anniversary issue bring to the reader discussions on progress and advancement made in agriculture during the past half century. Modernization of farm implements through the years, leading to present-day power farming, and development of farm practices and methods relative to soil culture, planting and harvesting of crops, are featured.

Also appearing in the farm publication are several articles, which are reminiscent of farms and living conditions of the "Gay Nineties".

"The Furrow", published six times a year, is mailed free to local farmers with the compliments of the local John Deere dealer. Many educational farm articles, written by authorities in the farming industry, are published in each issue.

Is your car a Booby Trap

Watch Out!

Candid cameras, highly prized by American troops, are often left behind by retreating Japs or Heinies with hidden explosives attached. These Booby Traps don't fool our boys any more. They've learned to disarm them before picking them up.

Watch Out!

The distributor in your car looks innocent enough. But if neglected it can become a Booby Trap... causing the distributor shaft to freeze or wear out its bearings. That's why Shelllubrication includes service to those parts, plus inspection of wiring and other parts of the distributor.

Play Safe!

Get a Safety Shelllubrication Today!

Every passing day increases the likelihood that Wartime Stop-and-Go driving will find a neglected spot in your car... that some vital part will fail.

And such failure could easily be more than an expense and annoyance. It might endanger your family's life.

So don't take chances! Protect your car with Shelllubrication... the special system of car maintenance developed by Shell engineers to stretch your car's lifetime and help prevent Booby Traps from developing at some hidden point. Your Shelllubrication receipt not only shows exactly what's been done, but tips you off to what more should be done.
