DIAL-LOG

BY SUSAN

If it's close to 6:30 be sure to check your radio and see that you're tuned to 1490 because tonight is the night the curtain goes up on the first production of the Brownstone Theatre. It's "The Lion and the Mouse" with Jackson Bech and Gertrude Warner playing the leads in tonight's production. We're looking forward to this half-hour, so plan to enjoy it with us, won't you? This is also the night for Main Line, 8 o'clock, a blood-curdler at 8:30 entitled True Detective Mysteries, and The Feeling is Mutual at 9:30. If we're not mistaken, that 9:30 show is the same one that used to lift us right out of chairs when it opened each week with a hair-raising scream, but maybe they've calmed down since we heard it last.

Thursday night brings you Music You Remember, 6:30; Rectal Hill of the Air, 7:30; Bulldog Drummond, 8, and a special Memorial to George Washington at 8:30. This week's Rectal Hill presents a group of very young artists, all students of Mrs. Homer Grow: Miss Jan Bennett, Mr. Jon Pickens, Miss Carolyn Burr and also Mrs. Robert Church.

We just heard that Betty Smith (the gal who made a lot of money out of that "Dress in Brooklyn") would be Paula Stone's guest. The guests are very fine, but we'd rather hear Phil Brito sing, wouldn't you?

Wayne Miller Winner of Prize for Naming Club

Wayne Miller was the winner of the $3 naming prize and "Club Levi" became the name of the youth recreation center at its third opening Friday night.

Additional changes announced by the committee will admit ninth graders as permanent members of the club. Hours will be from 7:30 to 11 p. m. Guests may be brought to the Club Levi if they are members in Brookly.

Teen-Age Dancing Class Enrolls 85 Youths

Eighty-five boys are now enrolled in the teen-age dancing class which will begin February 27 at the armory. Recruits from the Junior Womens club will be the instructors for the class and hours will be 7:30 to 9 p. m. The Club Levi, newly formed recreation group, is sponsoring the class.

DAILY DEVOTIONS DR. CHARLES A. EDWARDS

Today a pilot of a plane must learn to fly on the beam, as they call it. Each flying field has a certain radio beam, and when the pilot's radio is on he can fly straight to the field, regardless of the darkness of the night. God has given each one of us a heart which can pick up the beam of God's guidance, if we keep tuned to Him. We can fly our life planes on the beam to safety, if we listen to the sound of His voice, and do not become confused and lost amid the storms and fogs of the world. But there are certain things which may cause us to lose His voice. We may not be willing to stop and listen to God and find out what He wants us to do, but we hurry along our own be-fuddled way. We may give our time and thought to material things and fail to put the kingdom of God first, or we may feel that we can do it in our own strength and be unwilling to ask God for guidance. God is calling us to keep our hearts tuned so that we may hear His voice and be guided safely home. May we ever remember to keep flying on, the beam until we reach the final landing field. Amen.
