D. A. R. HAS FINE MEETING AT BROWN HOME MONDAY EVENING

The Umpqua chapter of the Daughters of the American Revolution met Monday evening at the attractive home of the regent, Mrs. George M. Brown, on the Melrose road. Mrs. Brown conducted the regular business session, which opened with the salute to the flag; American Creed and the D. A. R. ritual, followed by the singing of the national anthem.

Mrs. Walter V. Monger, program chairman carried out the D. A. R. policy of observing in some way the birthdays of historic figures by honoring both Washington and Lincoln with the members taking part by presenting interesting items on the two great men and telling of their visits to the national shrines erected in honor of Lincoln and Washington.

This was followed by the reading of a "cutting" from the great American historical novel, "Great Meadow" by Elizabeth Roberts.

This book is fitting at this time in that it sets forth a setting of Kentucky in 1774-1783, when America was fighting to win her independence, and the continent was called a Congress. This fascinating story of hardships and adventures of the pioneers is unusually well written and holds the attention of readers. It was very artistically presented by Mrs. Walter V. Monger, carrying out the D. A. R. three-fold program on patriotism, education and American history.

The members were greatly disappointed that John Petroquin was ill and unable to attend and to take part on the program by singing a group of solos, which had been planned for the occasion.

Following the meeting Mrs. Monger served delicious refreshments to Mrs. George M. Brown, regent, Miss Margaret Page, Mrs. Ray Petroquin, Mrs. William Anderson, Mrs. Douglas Waite, Mrs. Washington Hughes and Mrs. Marie Flitt McCall.

The next meeting will be announced later.

R. A. E. CLUB HAS DELIGHTFUL MEETING AT BERGH HOME

Mrs. Frank Bergh very graciously entertained the Roseburg Art and Embroidery club at her home Wednesday afternoon. Flowering quince and daffodils formed a pretty motif for the occasion.

Mrs. Liston Darby, of Springfield; Mrs. S. L. Hebard, of Eugene; and Mrs. Nick Andraeff, of Gold Beach, all former members, and Miss Margaret Page, a guest, enjoyed the occasion with Mrs. Bergh and the following members: Mrs. Rodgers, Mrs. C. H. Bailey, Mrs. E. Rhoads, Mrs. Frank Kent, Mrs. A. Neal, Mrs. Lucie Ingers, Mrs. H. Erskine, Mrs. C. W. Lawson, Mrs. C. M. Page, Mrs. H. F. Snyder, Mrs. J. G. Stephenson, Mrs. F. J. Cornell and Mrs. Earl Decker.

An old-fashioned spelling bee was enjoyed and a short business session was followed by a social hour of sewing and visiting. Various prizes were given during the afternoon. At the tea hour, Mrs. Bergh, assisted by Mrs. Kent and Mrs. Hebard, served delicious refreshments at beautifully appointed small tables. The next meeting of the club will be announced later.

GEORLEEN L. SHIGLEY AND IALO STEPHENS MARRY WEDNESDAY, FEBRUARY 14

Georleene Larmon Shigley, daughter of Mrs. Mary Shigley, of Coos Junction, and Ialo Stephens, Roseburg, were quietly married Wednesday evening, Feb. 14, at the First Christian church parsonage on South Kane street. Rev. Len B. Fishback, pastor of the church, performed the impressive ceremony at 7 o'clock in the presence of relatives of the couple.

The bride was attractive in a rose-colored suit with brown accessories. Her corsage was of gardenias. Miss Betty Shigley, sister of the bride, was maid of honor and wore a teal blue suit and a corsage of yellow tea roses. Donald Parker, of Roseburg, acted as best man.

Following a honeymoon trip, Mr. and Mrs. Stephens returned to Roseburg and will be at home to their friends at 324 East Washington street. The bride is a former resident of Chicago and moved to Oregon to be with her mother at Coos Junction. The bridegroom is a well-known business man and operates and owns the Stephens Auto company on North Main street.

MISS HELEN CASEY TO PRESENT PLAY, PROGRAM AT WOMAN'S CLUB MAR. 6

The next social event of the Roseburg Woman's club will be held at one-thirty o'clock March 6 at the clubhouse, at which time Miss Helen Casey will act as program chairman and will present a delightful one-act comedy, Miss Naomi Scott, talented violinist and violin instructor, will be guest artist on the program. Roll-call topics will be presented.

The play-cast includes: Miss Casey, Mrs. E. F. Waggoner, Mrs. W. R. Brown, Mrs. L. L. Wimberly, Mrs. W. M. Cornblom and Mrs. Frederick J. Porter.

Following the play and program the hostess committee will serve tea. The affair is open to members of the club and their invited guests.
