Kahut Faces 20-Pound Handicap in Bout Tonight

PORTLAND, March 2—(AP)—Joe Kahut, pride of Woodburn, was reported in fine shape today for tonight's 10-round bout with big Jack Huber, Garibaldi. Kahut's last Portland scrap for the duration.

The ex-farmer boy, now a navy seaman, is eager to get into the swing again after three months without boxing. Many fans, however, said the battle would be the most crucial of his ring career.

Huber, husky coast guardsman, has never been the loser in a Portland bout. He will outweigh Kahut by about 20 pounds and out-reach him, but other backers are counting on the Woodburn fighter's speed.
