BELLVIEW CLUB HAS ENJOYABLE MEETING WEDNESDAY AFTERNOON

Mrs. Ethel Roselund and Mrs. Cora Collison graciously entertained the Bellview club at the former's home Wednesday afternoon. To carry out the St. Patrick motif, each member wore something green and answered roll-call by telling a joke.

During the tea hour, delicious refreshments were served by Mrs. Roselund and Mrs. Collison to Mrs. Annie Pratt, Mrs. Laura Kester, Mrs. Mary Ellen Collison, Mrs. Edna Parker, Mrs. Cora Rogan, Miss Walker, Mrs. Edith Brauch, Miss Irene Walker, Mrs. Betty Haley, Mrs. Idella Kincaid, Mrs. Beth Boyer, Mrs. Emma Beckley, Miss Mazie O. Walker and Mrs. Mary Southwick.

The club will meet the afternoon of April 4 at the home of Mrs. Emma Van Voorst.

Miss Vivian Miller, daughter of Rev. and Mrs. Carl F. Miller, of Vancouver, Wash., announced her engagement to Corporal Gerald Dunagan, of Camp Swift, Texas, son of Mr. and Mrs. Roy Dunagan, of Springfield, Oregon, on February 8, at a charming luncheon party at Kanvon hall at Pacific college at Newberg.

The bride-elect is very well known in Roseburg, where she made her home with her brother-in-law and sister, Attorney and Mrs. Paul Geddes, while she was a student of the Roseburg schools. She was graduated from Roseburg high school last spring. She was a popular member of the younger set and was prominent in school activities. She is a freshman at Pacific college, where she is majoring in liberal arts, dramatics and journalism. The bridegroom-elect is a former student of Pacific college. No date has been set for the wedding.

Miss Helen Casey Presents Charming Club Entertainment

The largest spring guest-day tea and play to be sponsored by the Roseburg Woman's club was enjoyed at the clubhouse Tuesday with Miss Helen Casey in charge of the entertainment. The clubhouse was packed with members and guests, who expressed their enjoyment with the program presented by Miss Casey and the guest artist of the day, Miss Naomi Scott, talented violinist.

Mrs. Louis Kohlhaugen, Sr., and Miss Jennie E. Jorey were co-chairmen of the hostess committee and were very ably assisted by Mrs. J. N. Sparks, Mrs. Randolph Flagg, Mrs. S. A. Sanford, Mrs. Earl Plummer and Mrs. T. H. Dunn.

The St. Patrick's motif was beautifully carried out by the use of artistic arrangements of daffodils and acacia and graceful bows and streamers of lime-colored maline ribbon. Mrs. Velle Broadway, Mrs. Charles W. Wharton, Mrs. H. O. Pargeter and Mrs. L. W. Josse had charge of the decorations. The hostesses also carried out the St. Patrick's motif by wearing colorful yellow and green caps.

Mrs. Marie Flint McCall and Mrs. J. F. Barker poured. Both ladies wore attractive corsages of yellow acacia and daffodils.

Mrs. Homer W. Grow introduced Miss Naomi Scott, who opened the program by playing the lovely violin number, "Romance" by Rubenstein Wieniawski and followed with a charming encore, "Traumeri" by Schumann. Miss Gladys H. Strong acted as accompanist.

Miss Helen Casey presented the one-act comedy, "Emily's Problem" and was assisted by the following members of the cast: Mrs. W. R. Brown, Mrs. E. F. Waggoner, Mrs. L. L. Wimberly, Mrs. W. M. Campbell and Mrs. Frederick J. Porter. Assisting the cast with properties and costumes included: Mrs. Marie Flint McCall, Mrs. John Young, Miss Naomi Scott, Mrs. J. F. Dillard, Mrs. O. N. Wallace and Mrs. G. V. Wimberly.

Following the play, a social hour was enjoyed and tea was served.

The club will meet at 1 o'clock March 20 at the clubhouse for Red Cross work. At 3 o'clock, Mrs. Randolph Flagg will give another of a series of charming travels. Members and friends are cordially invited.

On April 3, the club will meet at 1:30 o'clock dessert-luncheon at the clubhouse with Mrs. Robert Irving and Mrs. C. E. Roberts as the two guest speakers on the program. Mrs. Irving will talk on her hobby of rug making and Mrs. Roberts will give a book review. Both speakers are exceptionally fine and the program promises to be of unusual interest and enjoyment. Roll-call topics will be given by Mrs. Randolph Flagg, Mrs. Kenneth Ford and Mrs. Donn Radabaugh.

Among the highlights of the club year will be the Magnolia silver tea to be given by the club at the beautiful home of Mrs. H. O. Pargeter on Claire street. The tea will be held from 2:30 to 5:30 in the afternoon and the exact date of the affair will be announced within a few days. Members of the Junior Woman's club have been asked as guests for the closing tea hour. The affair will be open to the public and all ladies desiring to attend are cordially invited. Special music has been arranged for the occasion. Further details of the affair will be announced later.

R. A. E. CLUB HAS ENJOYABLE AFTERNOON MEETING ON WEDNESDAY

The Roseburg Art and Embroidery club enjoyed a delightful meeting Wednesday at the home of Mrs. Lucia Ingles. Daffodils, African violets and ferns formed the decorations. Sewing, visiting and games were enjoyed with prizes going to the winners. A donation was planned for the Red Cross and at the tea hour Mrs. Ingles, assisted by her two daughters, Mrs. Jennie Leach and Mrs. Homer Kronke, served lovely refreshments.

Those enjoying the occasion with Mrs. Ingles included: Mrs. F. J. Cornell, Mrs. William Bailey, Mrs. Frank Kent, Mrs. Charles Poirot, Mrs. P. Napier, Mrs. J. G. Stephenson, Mrs. A. D. Hawn, Mrs. C. MR. AND MRS. MYNATT OBSERVE 50TH WEDDING ANNIVERSARY WEDNESDAY

Mr. and Mrs. L. R. Mynatt, both life-long residents of Douglas county, quietly observed their fifty-ninth wedding anniversary Wednesday, March 7, at the home of their son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Percy Croft, with whom they reside. On account of both Mr. and Mrs. Mynatt being in poor health, only members of the family were present.

So far reported, Mr. and Mrs. Mynatt are the only ones having been born in Douglas county, married here and remaining in the county their entire lives and the couple is interested to learn if there are any other couples with a similar history.

Mr. Mynatt was born July 14, 1861, at Riddle. Mrs. Mynatt, nee Mary E. Cooper, was born January 21, 1864, at Glengary. They were married March 7, 1886, at Glengary. Three sisters and two brothers of Mrs. Mynatt, who attended the wedding fifty-nine years ago, are still living.

The Mynatts have two daughters and a son: Mrs. Percy Croft, Roberts Creek, and Wilmer E. Mynatt, Pendleton. They have two grandchildren, Kathleen Weber, an employee of the Montgomery Ward company store in Roseburg, and Loren Weber, who is with the U. S. army now in Germany.

Mr. Mynatt engaged in farming until 1912, when he built the Kelley's Korner store and operated that business until 1921, when he retired and moved into Roseburg to reside.

Mr. and Mrs. Mynatt have many friends in the county, who wish them good health and many more years of happiness.
