Custer would have cheered it

It's the kind of high-riding, hard-hitting raider an old-line cavalryman would love—the fleet Mustang, a great airplane that flies first on Chevron Aviation Gasoline. Rated the fastest aircraft behind a propellor, every P-51 that rolls off North American Aviation's west coast assembly lines is test-flown, delivered on Chevron Aviation Gasoline. And take it from men who fly on Chevron Aviation Gasoline—they say: "After the war we're counting on you to give us a Chevron gasoline for the highway that will put skyway performance in our cars." And we will!
