DAILY DEVOTIONS

DR. CHARLES A. EDWARDS

There are many things which take the glow from human faces and the light from human eyes. There are many glows that we cannot hope to keep. But everyone must keep the spiritual glow, if life is to maintain its permanent splendor. But man cannot maintain this spiritual glow unless someone is beside him. Here Christianity has the sure and final word. Jesus Christ has entered time to give the glow of eternity to the things of time. He is in life's struggle too. Nail marks are on his hands and feet, and the thorn prints still mark his brow, but there is that light upon his face, which never was seen on land or sea. When we behold that face, there is a glow which comes into the loneliest heart. A glow which has all the time-less splendor needed for our torn and troubled lives. Life is still an adventure upon unknown seas, but we are not afraid if we sail with Him, for we know that all is well; that we cannot drift beyond His love and that He will give to our lives that glow which does not fade away.—Amen.

CALAPOOIA FREE METHODIST CHURCH

World's largest icebox!

This is the world's largest icing station, in Roseville, California. Equipment and platforms here can ice 256 refrigerator cars at once—supplying a car with 10,000 pounds of ice in one minute! In peak years 444,000,000 pounds of ice are manufactured to refrigerate fruit and vegetable shipments through this one Southern Pacific yard.
During a normal year 200,000 loaded refrigerator cars pass through the giant Roseville yard and other yards along Southern Pacific's lines. In this huge "icebox" fresh fruits and vegetables move to markets across the continent.
In no section of the United States are more fruits and vegetables grown than in California, Oregon, Arizona and the Rio Grande Valley of Texas. Every year this great Western garden supplies most of the nation's grapes, lettuce, asparagus, carrots, cauliflower, more than half of the citrus fruits and melons, much of the celery and peas, and nearly one-third of the principal deciduous fruits.

The West today would not be the prosperous agricultural region that it is without fast refrigerated freight, the huge investment in cars and equipment and the elaborate schedules of Western railroads which provide timely delivery of produce to markets where the demand is greatest.
Food fights for Victory. And fresh foods are vital to the health of Americans here on the home front, to men in Army, Navy and Marine camps, at home and abroad, to war workers in the Eastern industrial cities, to our returned wounded in hospitals throughout the land.

S.P. The friendly Southern Pacific
