TILLER—Miss Mae Belle Rainville, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Rainville of Tiller, who was graduated from Days Creek High school in 1940, and has worked for Gilliland Radio Bros., North American Aircraft and the Oregon Shipyard Corp., was inducted into the Woman's Army Corps, February 28, at the Portland recruiting station and is assigned for medical technician. Miss Rainville will leave March 12, with twelve other new recruits for Oglethorpe, Ga. She visited with old friends in Tiller, Wednesday, and spent some time at the South Umpqua branch of the American Red Cross headquarters, telling of her new work and of the interesting future the W.A.C. has laid out for her and the many other Oregon women fortunate enough to be accepted. Mrs. Amy Eslow, of Southern California, who is well known to all in this vicinity, having been in business with her husband, the late "Bud" Eslow in Tiller for many years, visited recently in Myrtle Creek and Tiller.

Plans for an Easter egg hunt are being made by Mrs. Della Short, teacher at the Tiller school, for Friday, March 30, for not only her pupils but also the pre-school age youngsters of the neighborhood.

Mr. and Mrs. Earl Maher have had as their houseguests Mr. and Mrs. John Duncan of Long Beach, Calif., and Mrs. Lela Sellers of Porterville, Calif.

A large sum of money has been received from the sale of a piece of wool at the ladies of the South Umpqua branch of the American Red Cross at Tiller within the last month. The money is to be used to purchase yarn to make laprobes for servicemen, who are hospitalized. Starting off the Tiller Red Cross War fund drive the groups set aside $10 to be forwarded to headquarters. Eighteen cotton dresses were made up by the ladies, under the direction of Mrs. Belcher, to be donated to the Philippine Relief and many more children's garments are in the process of completion. This work is being done while waiting for the new Red Cross quota of sewing to arrive.

Mrs. Elton Jackson, Mrs. Horace Corbett, Mrs. John Montgomery and several other ladies plan to go to Portland March 23, to pay their regular visit to the blood bank.
