ROSEBURG, OREGON

Miss Beatrice Hassler.

Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Hassler of Mt. Angel announce the engagement and approaching marriage of their daughter, Miss Beatrice Hassler, to Karl F. Kimmel, son of Mr. and Mrs. Max W. Kimmel, of Roseburg.

The wedding will take place April 2 at Mt. Angel in St. Mary's church.

Marries in Kansas, Feb. 26

Mrs. Robert E. Zuck

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Boyer, Roseburg, have announced the marriage of their attractive daughter, Miss Betty May, to Sgt. Robert E. Zuck, of Minneapolis, Minn. son of George E. Zuck, of South Gate, Calif., February 26, at the Episcopal church in Junction City, Kansas. Rev. Samuel A. McPeters performed the impressive double ring ceremony at eight o'clock in the evening in the presence of close friends of the couple. Miss Opal K. Eck and Sgt. Thomas V.

Scanlon, of Fort Riley, Kansas, were attendants. The bride attended the Roseburg schools and was later associated in business with her parents in operating the Northside market. The bridegroom, now stationed at Fort Riley, Kansas, recently returned to this country following 25 months of service in Africa, Italy and France. They are making their home at 826 1/2 North Washington street, Junction City, Kansas.

ENGAGEMENT TOLD AT PARTY HONORING CALIFORNIA VISITOR

In compliment to her daughter-in-law, Mrs. W. M. Campbell, Jr., who with her baby son, W. M. Campbell III, are here from Sacramento, Calif., a very charming at-home affair was given by Mrs. W. M. Campbell, Sr., Saturday evening from seven to nine o'clock at the home of the hostess on Winchester street. Mrs. Campbell, Jr. is the former Mary Julia Miller. Her husband is serving overseas and is now with the U. S. forces in Germany.

Thirty-five friends were invited to honor Mrs. Campbell Jr., and during the evening, a pleasant surprise was enjoyed, when the attractive St. Patrick decorated tea cakes were served and were found to contain the announcement of the engagement of Miss Elizabeth Campbell, only daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. M. Campbell, Sr., and Patrick W. Kilby, of Portland.

The bride-elect was graduated from Roseburg Senior High school, attended Park college at Parkville, Mo., and was graduated from Oregon State college. She is a member of Alpha Xi Delta sorority and at present is assistant dietitian at the Veterans Administration Facility hospital in Roseburg. The bridegroom-elect, is a son of Mrs. Charles Crowder, of La Grande, Ore., and is contact representative for the U. S. Veterans Administration with headquarters in the regional office in Portland. He was graduated from Whitman college in Walla Walla, Washington, and has been discharged from service in the U. S. navy air forces. No date has been announced for the wedding.

The St. Patrick's motif was beautifully carried out in the table and room decorations. Mrs. Morris H. Roach poured and Mrs. R. R. Brand and Mrs. George Churchill assisted in serving. Assisting the hostess about the rooms were: Mrs. F. H. Churchill, Mrs. R. W. Marsters and Mrs. Earl Ulrich.

WOMEN'S COUNCIL HOLDS MEETING AT FISHBACK HOME

The Women's Council of the First Christian church met Friday for a delightful all-day session at the home of Mrs. Len B. Fishback with Mrs. Bertha Emmons and Mrs. Pearl Carter as hostesses for the one o'clock potluck luncheon. Flowering plum and other spring blossoms decorated the rooms.

Mrs. Emma Beckley, president of the Ladies Aid, conducted the business session and discussed the goals for the remainder of the year. At two o'clock Mrs. Bertha Emmons called the Missionary meeting to order. Mrs. Edith S. Ackert led in prayer. Group singing was accompanied by Mrs. Fishback. Mrs. E. F. Waggoner very beautifully sang, "My Task," accompanied by Mrs. Harold Boucock. Mrs. Emmons gave the scripture reading and Mrs. Beckley, program chairman, presented a very fine program and continued the study of "Malaya," the Crossroads of the World. Mrs. Ethel White very interestingly told of the treacherous house of Malaya and Mrs. Fishback gave a fine talk on Malaya chapter of Christianity and Mrs. Stanley Glick ably discussed the cavalcade of neocles.

Mrs. Beckley closed the meeting with a short worship service taken from Matthew 22:8-12 and John 10:11.

The next meeting will be April 20 at the Fishback home. Those present were: Mrs. Alma Orr, Mrs. H. C. Parslow, Mrs. Emma Beckley, Mrs. Mary Plummer, Mrs. Ethel White, Mrs. Edith S. Ackert, Mrs. Pearl Anderson, Mrs. Rupert Lee, Mrs. Stanley Glick, Mrs. Bertha Emmons, Mrs. Mrs. C. E. Munson, Mrs. J. R. Wilson, Mrs. Harold Boucock, Mrs. E. F. Waggoner, Mrs. Washington Hughes, Mrs. Len B. Fishback, Mrs. W. H. Carter, Miss Rae Anne Wood and Miss Myra Beth Glick.
