Magnolia Tea Is Large Affair

Home of Mr. and Mrs. H. O. Pargeter

The beautiful home of Mr. and Mrs. H. O. Pargeter, on Claire street, was the scene of the season's largest social event Friday afternoon from two-thirty to five-thirty o'clock, when the Roseburg Woman's club invited the public to a charming magnolia tea.

The pink and white magnolia trees in the Pargeter garden are now in full bloom and in addition to them, there are numerous other flowering trees in bloom as well as spring flowering shrubs and early spring flowers.

The home is one of the largest and most attractive in the city.

The staid rooms were decorated with huge bouquets of mae-nollas, hyacinths and sprays of flowering plum. About one-hundred and seventy-five guests called during the tea hours.

The tea table, covered by an exquisite lace cloth, was centered with a low arrangement of pink magnolia buds, pink plum blossoms and tall pink and white tapers.

Assisting Mrs. Pargeter and the president, Mrs. G. V. Wimberly, in receiving were: Mrs. R. W. Marsters, Mrs. A. S. Coen, Mrs. Foster Butler, Mrs. L. Kohl-hagen, Sr., Mrs. O. S. Chambers, Mrs. Len B. Fishback and Mrs. W. M. Campbell.

Alternating in pouring during the tea hours were: Mrs. R. L. Whipple and Mrs. A. J. Geddes; Mrs. James E. Sawyers and Mrs. George K. Quine; Mrs. W. R. Brown and Mrs. L. B. Riddle.

Assisting in serving were: Mrs. W. R. Brown, Mrs. L. B. Riddle, Mrs. D. L. Chase, Mrs. H. N. Jacobson, Mrs. L. A. Wells, Mrs. R. H. Savage, Mrs. Velle Broadway, Mrs. L. W. Joss, Mrs. C. W. Wharton and Mrs. Randolph Flagg.

Members of the Junior Woman's club and guest artists assisting the club were asked as special guests of honor at the affair.

During the tea hours Mrs. Homer W. Grow and Mrs. Paul Geddes played incidental piano numbers; Mrs. E. F. Waggoner very charmingly sang two solos and Mrs. Vernon Orr presented a preview of a hat show, which she is sponsoring this month to raise money for the American Red Cross drive.

Miss Marjorie Ott acted as models. The clever hats were designed and made by Mrs. Orr, who acted as announcer for this special feature.

The event was the largest affair to be sponsored by the Roseburg Woman's club during the year and officers of the club have expressed their appreciation to Mr. and Mrs. Pargeter for making the event possible by the use of their home.

around the world twice and has paid numerous visits to Europe. She is an excellent speaker and her talk will be of much interest to the group.

Annual election of officers will be held at the business meeting and all parents are urged to be present.

I Was Your Routeman Your Washman Your Laundry's Employee

"From where I sit on this South Pacific Island, wartime laundry service back in the good old U. S. A. looks pretty good. I wash my socks, shorts and shirts in my helmet. I hang my 'Laundered (?)' shirt on a bush to dry and expect a bug or two to hide in it! I press my clothes under my blanket or not at all—there isn't much ironing equipment in a fox hole and the only starch is in a guy's backbone. Yet I understand that some of my friends back in the U. S. A. are complaining about wartime laundry service! When this thing is over, I'll be back to help my old boss in the laundry. Until then, do me a little favor—carry on."
