AMERICAN HEROES

by JULIAN OLLENDORFF

WHILE reconnoitering at night on the western front, Serg. Arthur G. Volonte, New York City, stumbled into a German patrol consisting of an officer and seven men. Serg. Volonte told the officer that they were surrounded and the Nazis followed him back to the American commander. The sergeant has been awarded a Silver Star for gallantry. Americans buy War Bonds to help men like that to win this war.
