Charming Program Enjoyed By Roseburg Woman's Club Tuesday

Mrs. E. L. Knapp and Mrs. Armour Murdock, chairmen, Mrs. A. H. Perrin, Mrs. G. V. Wimberly and Mrs. O. S. Chambers, assisted by Miss Jennie E. Jorey, entertained the Roseburg Woman's club at a lovely one-thirty o'clock dessert-luncheon Tuesday at the clubhouse. Tall yellow tapers and artistic arrangements of spring blossoms graced the tables and formed large bouquets about the rooms.

Mrs. G. V. Wimberly, president, conducted the meeting. The invocation was given by the club chaplain, Mrs. Morris H. Roach, with Mrs. Homer W. Grow playing for the group singing and announcing the club program. Plans were announced for the annual carnation exhibit for Friday and Saturday of this week.

Mrs. Donn Radabaugh gave a short talk on coming attractions at the three Roseburg motion picture theatres and Mrs. Kenneth Ford gave a splendid talk on the educational system of China.

Mrs. Paul Geddes, talented pianist, was guest artist and very charmingly played two piano selections, "The Clown" and "Valse."

The two guest speakers, Mrs. C. E. Roberts and Mrs. Robert L. Irving, presented one of the most interesting programs of the year. Mrs. Roberts gave excellent reviews of numerous books now available at the Roseburg Public library and Mrs. Irving talked on the history of the art of rug making and exhibited a number of very beautiful rugs made by her and two made by her mother-in-law, Mrs. Lois Irving.

Those present were: Mrs. G. V. Wimberly, president, Miss Estelle V. Conover, Mrs. Paul Geddes, Mrs. O. M. Berrie, Mrs. C. H. Bailey, Mrs. C. E. Roberts, Mrs. Kenneth Ford, Mrs. Robert L. Irving, Mrs. Lydia Hooper, Mrs. Foster Butler, Mrs. W. H. Richardson, Mrs. A. J. Geddes, Mrs. John Travis, Mrs. S. A. Sanford, Mrs. Washington Hughes, Mrs. Douglas Waite, Mrs. J. F. Bailey, Mrs. Earl Plummer, Mrs. D. L. Chase, Mrs. H. D. Scott, Mrs. J. D. Osborn, Mrs. M. F. Rice, Mrs. Velle Broadway, Mrs. Rena Helbig, Mrs. Harry F. Hatfield, Mrs. Adeline Olsen, Mrs. H. B. Carter, Mrs. K. D. Lytle, Mrs. Louis Kohlhaugen, Sr., Mrs. S. T. Smith, Mrs. V. J. Hayman, Mrs. A. S. Coen, Mrs. George K. Quine, Mrs. J. N. Sparks, Mrs. E. L. Knapp, Mrs. Armour Murdock, Mrs. A. H. Perrin and Mrs. Frederick J. Porter.

The next meeting will be a Red Cross sewing session at the clubhouse at one o'clock April 17. Mrs. Murdock is sewing chairman and all members of the club and friends interested in helping the Red Cross are invited to be present. Members of the club have expressed their desire for Mrs. Randolph Flagg to continue her traveling talk by giving one of the series of travelogues at this sewing meeting. Mrs. Flagg's talks have added greatly to the sewing meetings and are very much appreciated and enjoyed by the group.

The next social meeting of the club will be held at one-thirty o'clock at the clubhouse May 1 with Mrs. A. J. Geddes and Mrs. F. W. Chase, hostess chairmen, assisted by Mrs. Carl Klauenhammer, Mrs. V. J. Hayman, Mrs. M. F. Rice, Mrs. G. W. Marshall and Mrs. R. A. Feenstra, Miss Gladys H. Strong, one of Roseburg's most prominent musicians and piano teachers, will be chairman of the annual music program to be presented. Outstanding musicians of the community will assist Miss Strong with the program, which will be open to all members of the club and their invited guests. Following the program, tea will be served by the hostesses. The program will be in observance of national music week.

The nominating committee: Mrs. A. S. Coen, Mrs. Len B. Fishback and Mrs. W. R. Brown, will make their report at the meeting and annual election of officers will be held.

MID-WEEK BIBLE CLASS ENTERTAINED AT VANG HOME ON THURSDAY

Mrs. C. Vang very graciously entertained the Mid-Week Bible class of St. Paul's Lutheran church at her home on Hoover street Thursday afternoon. After the scriptural prayer by the pastor, Rev. W. A. Sylvester, the group studied the parable of the talents as recorded in Matthew 25. The group discussed purchasing a stereopticon machine for the purpose of showing pictures in the Sunday school.

A very pleasant social hour followed and delicious refreshments were served by Mrs. Vang, assisted by her mother, Mrs. A. Rietman, to Rev. and Mrs. W. A. Sylvester and sons, John and Richard; Mrs. W. Graham, Mrs. E. Roglitz, Mrs. Malitz and son, David; Mrs. Klingman and grandchildren, Patsy and Richard Thomas; Mrs. B. Fromdahl and children, Daniel, Patsy and David; Mrs. L. Voigt, Mrs. W. Vogt, Mrs. L. Murphy, Miss Freda Schaeffer, Mrs. E. Martin and son, Lee Robert; Mrs. R. Kaine, Mrs. A. Erney, Mrs. A. Coenenberg, Mrs. C. Beecroft and son Jimmy; Mrs. V. Andraeff, Barbara and Larry Vang and A. Rietman.

The next meeting will be April 19 at 2 o'clock at the home of Mrs. L. Murphy in Umpqua. Cars will be provided to furnish transportation for all members and friends not having a means of getting to the Murphy home. All persons planning to attend are requested to be at the church not later than one o'clock.

SOCIAL CLUB HAS ENJOYABLE MEETING WEDNESDAY AFTERNOON

The members of the Social club of George Starmer auxiliary to United Spanish War veterans were graciously entertained at a salad-dessert luncheon Wednesday afternoon by Mrs. Rena Helbig, at her home on S. Pine St. Visiting and sewing were enjoyed and later a business meeting was held. Those present were: Mrs. Clara Starmer, Mrs. Emma Taylor, Mrs. Elsie Wright, Mrs. Harriet Printz, Mrs. Hattie Redell, Mrs. Minnie L. Bailey, Mrs. Pearl Shugart, Mrs. Irene Williams and the hostess, Mrs. Helbig. The next meeting of the club will be April 25. Meeting place to be announced later.

MARILOU MORISSETTE IS HOSTESS TO CAMP FIRE GROUP AT EASTER PARTY

Marilou Morissette entertained her Camp Fire group at a very delightful Easter party at her attractive home on east Lane street Monday afternoon. Games were enjoyed and later lovely refreshments were served at a table beautifully decorated in the Easter motif. Covers were placed for: Mrs. Sidney Dominico, guardian, and Mimi Ingram, Marge Lee Moore, Catherine Rodey, Elizabeth Miller, Lucille Miller, Mary Ann Foster, Dorothy Casey, Shirley Sims, JoAnn and the Carolyn Morissette and the hostess, Marilou Morissette.

GOLDEN WEDDING IS CELEBRATED BY MR. AND MRS. PRATT

The golden wedding anniversary of Mr. and Mrs. P. C. Pratt was very happily observed by them at their home in West Salem during the weekend of March 18 and 19th. These dates also included the birthdays of the honored couple. A greeting shower was planned for them by their two daughters and they were the recipients of nearly two hundred lovely expressions of love and friendship from relatives and friends in many distant states as well as those in their home city and vicinity. Many beautiful and appropriate gifts were also received from family and friends.

Mr. and Mrs. Pratt are members of the Calvary Baptist church and have given many years of sincere service in its work. They were happily surprised when they were given a very lovely anniversary gift from the church, which was presented to them at their home by Rev. and Mrs. Charles Durden. A beautiful floral arrangement, honoring Mr. and Mrs. Pratt, and given by their two daughters, graced the church rostrum during the Sunday services the date preceding the anniversary.

A family dinner was enjoyed at the West Salem home Sunday. The table was centered with a four-tiered gold and white wedding cake made by their daughter, Mrs. Clyde Beard, and the rooms were attractively decorated with flowers in shades of gold and yellow. Marilyn and Donald Beard, grandchildren, played piano numbers for the occasion. Those present for the anniversary dinner were Mr. and Mrs. Pratt's two daughters, Mrs. Bern Wright, who is librarian at the Parish Junior high school in Salem, and Mrs. Clyde Beard and two children, Marilyn and Donald, of McMinnville. Mrs. Beard's son-in-law, was unable to attend the occasion, due to his absence from the state as director of public relations for Linfield college.

Mr. and Mrs. Pratt were married in Corvallis March 19, 1895, by Rev. W. H. Dorward. Mrs. Pratt's father, who was pastor of the Corvallis Baptist church at the time. The couple left for Iowa, where Mr. Pratt was engaged in banking and real estate work and where their three children were born. Later the family moved west, locating in California and finally to Oregon, where Mr. Pratt continued in clerical and real estate work until retirement in West Salem. Their only son, Dorward Collins, veteran of World War I, passed away several years ago in Salem.

The many friends of the couple wish them many more years of happiness together. Both Mr. and Mrs. Pratt are very well known in Roseburg, where they visited frequently during their residence here of their daughter, Mrs. Clyde Beard, and family, while Mr. Beard was principal of the senior high school. The Beards made their home in Roseburg for 15 years, moving only last spring to McMinnville.

JUNIOR WOMAN'S CLUB HAS INTERESTING MEETING ON MONDAY EVENING

The Junior Woman's club held an interesting meeting Monday evening at the clubhouse with Mrs. Bernard Saar, president, in charge. Mrs. Donald White was appointed to represent the club at the public relations dinner to be sponsored next Monday evening by the B. F. W. at the Hotel Umpqua. Mrs. White is vice president of the club.

Members are urged to turn in their milk bottle contributions to Mrs. J. E. Henbest at Weber's bakery within the next week.

The next meeting of the club was announced for April 16 to be in the form of a seven o'clock potluck supper at the clubhouse. Dessert will be furnished by the committee and those attending are asked to bring a covered dish or a salad. Mrs. Perry Thiele will act as chairman of the affair. The nominating committee will make its report at the meeting.

Those present included: Mrs. Bernard Saar, Mrs. Sidney Moon, Mrs. Sidney Dominico, Miss Meta-Marie Amiot, Miss Annaloris Ward, Mrs. Cecil Thompson, Mrs. Donald Johnson, Mrs. J. E. Henbest, Mrs. Donald Metzger, Mrs. George Eckart, Miss Marjorie Ott, Miss Athalia Taylor, Mrs. Donald White, Mrs. John Giovanni, Mrs. T. C. Fitzgerald and Mrs. Perry Thiele.

R. A. E. CLUB IS ENTERTAINED BY MRS. NAPIER

The Roseburg Art and Embroidery club met at the attractive home of Mrs. George Kohlhaugen on South Jackson street Wednesday afternoon with Mrs. Patty Napier as hostess. Flowering quince, Easter lilies, peach blossoms and daffodils carried out a pretty motif for the occasion.

A humorous article furnished by Mrs. Kohlhaugen was read by Mrs. Snyder and was greatly enjoyed. The article was entitled, "When I Am 80." A business session was followed by guessing games and visiting and prizes were awarded to winners.

Lovely refreshments were served by Mrs. Napier, assisted by Miss Jeannie Buick and Mrs. Geo.

Kohlhaugen. Those enjoying the afternoon with Mrs. Napier included: Miss Buick, Mrs. Farnham, Mrs. Kohlhaugen and Larry Erickson, guests, and the following members: Mrs. Poirot, Mrs. Bergh, Mrs. Kent, Mrs. William Bailey, Mrs. Hoffmeister, Mrs. Stephenson, Mrs. Ingels, Mrs. Lawson, Mrs. Cluck, Mrs. Neal, Mrs. C. H. Bailey, Mrs. Rodgers, Mrs. Rhoads, Mrs. Cornell, Mrs. Hawk, Mrs. Worthington and Mrs. Snyder.

The next meeting will be April 18 at the home of Mrs. Neal on Fleser street.

TWELVE AND WON CLUB HAS LUNCHEON MEETING TUESDAY

Mrs. Hattie Richardson entertained the Twelve and Won club at a delicious potluck luncheon at her home on South Main street, Tuesday noon.

The decorations were nests of bunnies and Easter eggs. A cake and birthday gifts were presented to Mrs. Jane Moran, Mrs. Catherine Fest, Mrs. Hattie Richardson, Miss Bernadine Prince.

The afternoon was spent in a short business meeting, visiting and games. Mrs. Olga Ellison won the guest prize. High prize went to Miss Bernadine Prince, and second prize to Mrs. Jane Moran.

Those present were: Mrs. Jane Moran, Mrs. Anna Trozelle, Mrs. E. K. Jones, guest, Mrs. Olga Ellison, guest, Mrs. Margaret Ritzman, Mrs. Mary Prince, Mrs. Madeline Hargis, Miss Bernadine Prince, hostess, Mrs. Hattie Richardson.

The next meeting will be on April 17. Mrs. Margaret Ritzman will be hostess at her home at 603 Hamilton.

NORTHSIDE SUNSHINE CLUB MEETS AT INGELS HOME ON THURSDAY

Mrs. Lucia Ingels was a most gracious hostess to the Northside Sunshine club Thursday afternoon at her home on Winchester street. Spring flowers and Easter decorations carried out a pretty motif for the occasion.

A short business meeting was in charge of the president, Mabel Patterson. A donation of $2.50 was given to the Red Cross and also $2.50 was given to the Salvation Army for war relief. Polyanthus gifts were exchanged and bingo was in play with Mrs. Ruth Jackson winning the grand prize.

Delicious refreshments were served by the hostess, assisted by her daughter, Mrs. Jennie Leach, to Mrs. Ruth Jackson, Mrs. Edna Mae Jones, Miss Norma Fisher and Miss Lou Leach, guests, and Mrs. Laura Mack, Mrs. Stella Payne, Mrs. Enore Fisher, Mrs. Myrtella Emmitt, Mrs. Eva Wilkinson, Mrs. Margaret Lou Warford, Mrs. Margaret Pendergrass, Mrs. Hattie Perrin, Mrs. Clara Stewig and Mrs. Mabel Patterson, members.

Mrs. Ora Worthington has invited the club to meet at her home on east Lane street for the afternoon of April 12.

MRS. J. B. PATRICK IS HONORED AT SURPRISE PARTY ON BIRTHDAY

Mrs. J. B. Patrick was very pleasantly surprised Thursday evening when a group of friends called at her home to honor her on her birthday. A beautiful lighted birthday cake and gifts were presented to Mrs. Patrick from: Mrs. W. W. Bonebrake, Mrs. E. M. Renfro, Mrs. J. W. Tynan, Mrs. William Allen, Mrs. T. B. Virden, Mrs. F. S. Monroe and Mrs. Hattie McAfee.

Visiting was enjoyed and later lovely refreshments were served.

Albany-Toledo Utility Line Building Begun

PORTLAND, April 6—(AP)—Workers are expected to start clearing the right of way for construction of a 48-mile power transmission line between Albany and Toledo early in May, state WMC director L. C. Stoll said today.

A manpower priority for the work has been issued to the Bonneville power administration.

Better service from Newport to Coos Bay and central Lincoln county will be provided through the project, Bonneville plans in addition to the Albany substation and a new substation at Toledo to carry the power load.

Deep Sea Troller Lost in Nanosoe Bay; Crew Saved

NANAIMO, B. C., April 6—(Canadian Press)—Loss of the 40-foot troller, standard after striking a rock ledge in Nanosoe bay, 27 miles from here on the northwest coast of Vancouver island, was reported yesterday.

The entire crew was rescued. The vessel was en route from Seattle to the Alaska fishing banks.

A smaller vessel identity unlearned, also struck the ledge but managed to free herself and return here for repairs.

"From where I sit on this South Pacific Island, wartime laundry service back in the good old U. S. A. looks pretty good. I wash my socks, shorts and shirts in my helmet. I hang my 'Laundered (?)' shirt on a bush to dry and expect a bug or two to hide in it! I press my clothes under my blanket or not at all—there isn't much ironing equipment in a fox hole and the only starch is in a guy's backbone. Yet I understand that some of my friends back in the U.
