FOR these same mad leaders have decreed that Germany shall march down into the valley of the shadow of economic death—into the dim twilight of the gods that is chaos and anarchy and ruin, if they can't have Germany, NOBODY shall have Germany "After us the deluge."
 All that is left for the German people is to wait in numb terror for the end.

FOR them there is NOT EVEN PITY.

Pity has been driven from the hearts of all mankind by the savage excesses of these leaders that have been TOLERATED by the German people—by the grisly murder factories of the past, and by the burning and shooting of helpless prisoners that still goes on. (As late as yesterday, 220 political prisoners in a concentration camp in Leipzig were sprayed with flaming acetone and burned to death by their jailers.) Not even remorse for their evil deeds in the face of certainly impending punishment moves these monsters.

THERE is no sympathy for these Germans as human beings— for it is doubtful if they are human beings in any modern sense of the term.

 In Leipzig, after battering it down with heavy artillery, we finally took the city hall, which had been converted into an inner citadel of last resort, and when our soldiers entered this steelsheathed last inner citadel a slight me their eyes that can only be described as out of this world.

Some 130 nazis, both military and civilian, had gathered there after all hope was gone. They had set a banquet, with food and wine. Then, after eating and drinking, they killed themselves.
 Officers lay across the table, the position of the guns in their hands indicating that they had killed each other at a given signal. There were WOMEN among the dead. Poison (quick-acting cyanide), as well as guns, had been used in this strange pact of death.

SO much for Germany. It is enough. Our stomachs can stand only so much of this sort of thing.

Let us turn now to Japan.
 HERE again we find no traces of what in our innocence we have been won't to term humanity.

Beginning at Attu, where we first encountered the strange Japanese mania for hopeless and useless death, the Pacific war has been a long and horrible sequence of self-destruction by our enemies.
 It has reached the point where about the only visible evidence of over-all strategy on the part of the Jap leaders is to say to us, in effect:

"All 70 million of us are determined to die, as the three millions of us have. Killed so far since this war began. Dying all of us will be a long and wearing and bloody job—a bigger and bloodier and more terrible job than your foolish American sensibilities can stand.
 So you'd better call it off now and let us keep what we have left out of what we have stolen."

SUCH are the fruits of bad leadership. Bad leadership PLUS INDOCTRINATION in savagery, indoctrination begun in infancy and carried through to maturity.
 In such indoctrination lies a fearful power for evil.

UNLESS the world is to go down, down, down into another Dark Age, we must find

GO WEST—BUT NOT BY S. P.

By Charles V. Stanton

Representative Harold Knutson of Minnesota, in a radio address last March 13, speaking on the subject "The West Offers Opportunities for Servicemen," repeated, in effect, Horace Greeley's advice, "Go west, young man, go west." Striking at defeatist attitudes and claims that there is no further opportunity to private enterprise and individual initiative, he declared that the states west of the Mississippi offer opportunity for "creation of an empire of truly continental size."

He pointed out that after the Civil war men were given land certificates and that they carved out the "world's greatest agricultural empire." He emphasized that they needed no further government subsidy, no public works, no dote, but that by their initiative they created jobs for great numbers of people.

He urged distribution of industrial activity to all parts of the nation, stating that at present the "population map of the United States looks like a bus, with all the congestion at the front end."

"Migration of veterans to the West," he asserted, "will be the power that will create the new empire. The producers it brings with it, will, at the same time, be consumers that will keep the producers at work."

Representative Knutson challenged chambers of commerce, civic organizations, banks, industries, newspapers and radio stations to "start soldiers and war workers—and their wives, mothers and sweethearts—to thinking about the great opportunities which the West has to offer them."

He stresses the distinction between a continental empire which exploits the resources of its territories for the benefit of its people, and a colonial empire which exploits the people of its colonies for the benefit of a favored few. By industrial development of the West, he declared, a continental empire can be created, instead of the colonial West being exploited for the benefit of the industrialized East.

Naturally, those of us who know and love the West are anxious to do all we can to make this dream of a continental empire come true. But when we attempt to localize the representative's remarks—make them applicable to Douglas county—we come face to face with the following comment contained in his address:

"So I expect the railroads—which played so important a part in pioneering the agricultural West—to play an even more important part in the promotion of the new industrial West."

Just how much promotion for the Douglas county area and, in fact, Southwestern Oregon, can we expect from the "Friendly" Southern Pacific, which has kept us in the industrial icebox all these years? Do you imagine that any veteran who rode the "owl" train through Southern Oregon, making all the milk stops, and riding a mixed cattle and passenger train, would form a likely impression of the West? When he is told at a ticket window in a California station—as people have been told—that Roseburg isn't on the S. P. line, is he apt to consider Douglas county as a possible location for his investment and future home?

Founder Harriman had visions of empire when he built the Southern Pacific, but his successors have an eye only for the cash box.

As Representative Knutson so ably declared, the West offers opportunity for an empire of truly continental size, but promotion by railroads is one of the most essential steps in building that empire. As long as we continue to be held in the grip of a transportation utility which refuses to provide a modern, adequate passenger service to that section of the Pacific coast offering the greatest opportunity for new industrial development, we will be seriously handicapped in our empire building.

the ANTIDOTE for this fearful power for evil.

The antidote lies in GOOD leadership, sound leadership, wise leadership.

That is what we MUST have in the pregnant years that lie ahead of us.

Without it, the world can't be snatched back from the precipice that yawns ahead.

FOR too many years, we Americans have been far too careless in our choice of leaders. Men who are qualified to lead have stayed out of politics. The job of running for office has been left too often to mouthy demagogues.
 In this emergency that has arisen to confront us, we have been luckier than we have any right to be. The general run of our leadership has risen to the occasion in the traditional American manner, and so we have been saved from the consequences of our negligence.

But we mustn't take any more chances. We must choose as our leaders from here on the best that we have, and we must give to them a quality of loyalty and tolerance in our support of them far above what we have exhibited in the past.

The world situation today is too grave to justify any more risks.

Marshal Petain Said to Have Escaped From Nazis

PARIS, April 21.—(AP)—The newspaper L'Ordre, crediting private sources, said today that Marshal Henri Petain has escaped from Germany into Switzerland.
 The article added that Pierre Laval, Marcel Deat and other collaborators remained behind.
 Simultaneously, a demand was made by the newspaper La De-peche that the case against Petain be prepared and legal machinery be set up for a swift trial of the former head of the Vichy government.

The old cathedral in Port-au-Prince, Haiti, had no walls. The roof was supported by great wood pillars, which are still standing.

URGES RELIEF FROM JAM IN ROSEBURG TRAFFIC

Editor News-Review:
 Having made over a period of several months many efforts to cross Highway 59 on Stephens St. in some cases with nearly fatal results, and especially Saturday morning on returning from the hospital when I managed to get behind a four-car jam, and vainly watched the traffic on Stephens street run north and south, my opinion is that it is time something is done about traffic conditions on Oak, Cass and Lane streets. The average driver on a through highway seems to think he has complete right of way, and that no one entering from a cross street has any business entering this through highway.
 They merely roll on disregarding the attempt to cross. May I urge the city council and the state highway office in Roseburg to do something about this before there is a serious accident at one of these crossings.

PSALM FROM INDIAN HAS NOTEWORTHY MERIT

Editor News-Review:
 A friend has sent me the enclosed. It seems to me so beautifully meaningful that, if you can spare the space to print it, I shall appreciate the privilege of sharing it with other readers of the News-Review.
 A Psalm in Indian Language
 "The Great Father, above, a Shepherd Chief is. I am his, and with him I want not. He throws out to me a rope, and the name of that rope is love, and he draws me, and he draws me to where the grass is green and the water not dangerous, and I eat and drink and lie down satisfied.
 Sometimes my heart is very weak and falls down, but he lifts it up again, and draws me into a good road.
 His name is wonderful.
 Sometime, it may be very soon, it may be longer, it may be a long, long time—he will draw me into a place between mountains. It is dark there, but I'll not draw back; I'll be afraid not, for it is there between those mountains that the Shepherd Chief will meet me, and the hunger I have felt in my heart all through this life will be satisfied.
 Sometimes he makes the love rope into a whip, but afterwards

We completely forgot to tell you last Saturday about your favorite Dud Williamson's good luck. As you know, if you listened to "Name That Song" yesterday, he has moved to New York, and will soon be heard on other network shows as well as his own pet brainchild, Local boy makes good in a big way. We also hear by the grapevine that our favorite Tommy Harris will soon be moving to greener fields. However, for tonight, (we hesitate to mention it again, since they feel so free to cuss) it's Better Half at 6:30. Here Comes the Band at 8, Michael Shane at 8:30, News at 9 and our new pride and joy, Snapshots at 9:30. Do listen, won't you? It's lots of fun. Sherlock Holmes at 10:15. You'd better get caught up on your listening here because it won't be too long before Sherlock Holmes and Dr.
 Watson will be taking their summer vacation. Fulton Lewis, Jr., has decided not to join the exodus to San Francisco for the conference, but will remain in Washington to keep his eye on the zo-nings in the nation's capital.
 Most of the other reporters will be in San Francisco, so you will be assured of a complete coverage at all times. And as far as the late war news is concerned, all you have to do is dial 1390 and you'll get it just as quickly as it comes in hot off the griddle.

Liner Loaded With Refugees Sank by Mine

MALMOE, Sweden, April 21.— (AP)—The 17,000-ton liner Pretoria of the German East Africa lines, loaded with refugees and bound for Copenhagen, struck a mine south of Oresund and sank within a few minutes early today, reports from Denmark said. The North German Lloyd ship Potsdam was reported to have reached Copenhagen safely with other refugees.

The old cathedral in Port-au-
 pillars, which are still standing.

DAILY DEVOTIONS

DR. CHARLES A. EDWARDS

God is ever watching over His children, though sometimes He may seem to us indifferent to our affairs. So it must have seemed to the Psalmist when he made his plea, "Make no tarrying O My God." Yet he discovers within himself the answer to God's apparent aloof-ness when he meditates.
 "Therefore hath the Lord re-pentened me according to my righteousness." He finds that God deals with individuals and nations according to their intent and purpose of soul. "With the merciful Thou wilt show thyself merciful." Therefore duty seems to account for God's failure to hear and answer prayer. Isaiah says: Your iniquities have separated between you and your God. Christ's first concern in His mission of redemption was to bridge the chasm, separating man from God. Therefore He came preaching the gospel and saying: The Kingdom of God is at hand; repent ye and believe the gospel. He is still calling upon men to cast aside those iniquities that separate them from God, so that God may be able to hear and answer their prayers.—Amen.

Convicted Boys Halted In Jail Break Attempt

SEATTLE, April 21.—(AP)—In an attempted jail break, two of the youths convicted Thursday of second degree murder in the jail death of John Emberg, 16, slugged a guard on the head with a heavy wrench as the three sat playing cards early today.
 The youths, Chester Mabe and Donald Beal, both 15, reiterated that they would "never be taken to prison alive."
 Officials said Mabe had concealed the wrench in his clothing sometime yesterday as workmen

River Yields Boy's Body
 CORVALLIS, Ore., April 21.— (AP)—Firemen have recovered the body of 12-year-old William Scott from Mary's river, where swollen waters since March 21 thwarted salvage attempts.
 The boy's body was caught in the net placed across the railroad bridge. A playmate said Billy fell from a raft in the stream.
