Oregon's Building Plan Stressed by War's End

PORTLAND, May 7—(AP)—End of the war in Europe and the announced early demobilization of two million men increases the urgency for passage of the Oregon postwar building bill. The building committee of the state board of higher education declared today.

Veterans will be flocking to the colleges rapidly now, beyond the capacity of present plans to care for them, board members said.

"Should the building bill fail to pass," the committee said "it would be utterly impossible for the board to meet the postwar demands at these institutions with the limited funds now appropriated for building purposes."
