BY V. T. HAMLIN

WEDNESDAY NIGHT... and lots of good listening on tap for you on 1590. Beginning at 8:30 with Brownstone Theatre and running through the re-broadcast of Fulton Lewis, Jr., there's good entertainment right along. For instance, The Brownstone Theatre presents a revival of "The Prisoner of Zenda". If that doesn't take you back in memory, we don't know what would. Then there's Lone Ranger at 7:30, Main Line at 8:00, and the Fresh Up Show at 8:30, with Bert Wheeler, one of Broadway's top ranking stars, appearing as guest. We have heard several of the Arch Oboler plays—one is at 9:30 tonight, remember—and these we can heartily recommend as being tops in entertainment. They are well produced, have excellent casts and the plays are refreshing in that they are definitely different from the general run of radio productions. Tonight's play is entitled "Holiday '1919", but we don't know what it's all about. Well, there you are. It's a nice
