In the Day's News

Chinese victory reports with considerably more than the proverbial grain of salt. The Chinese are inclined to be optimistic in telling what they've done to the enemy.

There is a Washington dispatch telling of JAP PEACE FEELERS. It's all very secret. NOTHING official. The technique seems to be for some Jap to ask some neutral to "feel around" among his American friends for a slant on their "real ideas" on peace.

There seems to be considerable worry among the Jap WEALTHY classes, which lends color to the reports. History tells us it is always the wealthy, who have MUCH to lose by defeat, who get worried first when the news from the fighting fronts gets bad.

THIS Washington dispatch quotes nobody. But it is an interesting development just the same, indicating that the insiders may be getting some glimmering of the fundamental fact that the public ought to be told some part of the truth about what is going on.

Maybe Truman has had something to do with it. The way he knocked OWI Elmer Davis' ears down the other day on the general subject of censorship in now-beaten Germany is encouraging.

LET'S show our approval of this new note of candor by receiving it SENSIBLY and reasonably—and NOT jumping to conclusions that are in no way warranted. It doesn't mean that peace in the Pacific is just around the corner. ALL it means is that the Japs are getting worried and would like to quit if they could do so and keep a fair measure of their LOOT.

THE way to bring them to their milk is to KEEP HITTING HARD AND OFTEN, giving them no time to get their second wind.

EUROPE these days is a hotbed of suspicion. What is happening in Flensburg, on the German-Dane border, where Admiral Doenitz still maintains some sort of German government and appears to be still doing some sort of dickering, is arousing heated curiosity.

It is a hush-hush mystery, with everybody in authority refusing to talk. THE subject of the war criminals and what is to be done about them is stirring bile and bad blood. The Russians, whose obvious policy (for reasons not known outside the inner circles) is to keep prodding us and the British are beginning to make nasty cracks about it.

A Prof. Anton Trainin, who is a columnist for the Russian army newspaper, Red Star, says: "The allied war crimes commission in London (on which Russia is NOT represented) has spent many months compiling seven lists of war criminals. Naturally the question that now arises is how much time is going to be required to get these criminals from the lists to the courts?"

He adds: "Justice is in fact moving WITH ITS BRAKES ON."

NEWSPAPERS TO THE NAVY

By Charles V. Stanton

The U. S. Navy is putting into effect the same regulations concerning mailing of hometown newspapers to overseas personnel that the army has maintained throughout the greater part of the war. Under these regulations, newspapers will be accepted at fleet postoffices only when the paper has been directly requested by individual servicemen.

It shall be necessary for the publisher to have on file a written request from the addressee for subscriptions or renewals of subscriptions. Postmasters at offices of mailing can require presentation of such requests for examination at any time.

When we watch the truckload of newspapers leaving the News-Review office every night, we can sympathize with the navy's problem. We publish more than 5,500 papers every week day. Almost 3,000 of these newspapers go through the mail, requiring from 6 to 8 mail sacks, depending upon the size of the edition.

The News-Review is a very small newspaper compared with metropolitan dailies, but our figures give some idea of the space required to send several million newspapers abroad. Consequently, it is surprising, in view of the stupendous shipping problem in the Pacific area, that the military services will accept newspapers under any consideration.

Yet the Army and the Navy have been most obliging and cooperative in handling newspapers to men abroad. The military services recognize the morale-producing effect of the hometown newspaper. Men have written us from overseas telling how much the News-Review means to them; how it is passed from hand to hand until it is completely worn out. We have been told how men from other states—men who had absolutely no acquaintanceship with Douglas county or its people, other than their few comrades in uniform—have been ardent readers of our newspaper, reading even the personals and the society items, and debating about the articles they would like to buy, or the jobs they would like to take, as shown in the classified advertising department. The newspaper is a link with home. The boy in a foxhole, thumbing the hometown paper, even though it may be months old, can, in imagination, be back in his own easy chair at home for a few minutes.

But newspapers are bulky material. With the increase of personnel in the Pacific area, the task of handling newspapers through mailing and shipping facilities becomes a problem of first magnitude.

The Army has maintained restrictions on newspaper mailings throughout the war, with the exception of a few brief periods when regulations were eased temporarily. The Navy, however, has, until now, permitted unlimited mailing of newspapers, but is no longer able to extend this privilege.

Henceforth newspapers will be accepted for overseas mailing only upon the conditions stated.

The News-Review, under these regulations, may be mailed only when a request is received from the man in service, and his request must be in such form that it may be maintained in our files, subject to postal inspection. We will be permitted to continue sending a newspaper to a man in Naval service who has been a regular subscriber, but will need a new request in order to continue mailing after expiration date of the current subscription. Relatives or friends may pay for new subscriptions or renewals providing the request for the newspaper has been initiated by the addressee.

The Navy has requested wide publicity of its order, so that all persons concerned may be informed of the necessity of shipping space. The News-Review is appreciative of the Navy's problem and will endeavor to comply strictly with the regulations.

The Navy department urges that clippings of items of particular interest be mailed with letters, rather than sending complete issues of newspapers and other publications. Clippings won't entirely take the place of the hometown newspaper but they will help. And there is another act that will help—WRITE OFTEN.

EXCLUDING the Jap list calls for SPEEDY trial for ALL of them.)

WE'VE evidently got a straight tip that Himmler is in the Berchtesgaden area (maybe Ribbentrop and Ley also) and a big manhunt is on there. An encouraging note is lent by the fact that anti-Nazi Germans and Austrians are helping us. That seems to indicate that there are SOME anti-Nazis. If there were none, we'd face a hard job in rebuilding Germany.

CANADA'S McKenzie King is up for re-election as premier and his campaign offers another sour note.

He's telling the anti-war Quebec French that if elected he'll send only Canadian VOLUNTEERS into the Pacific and will make Canada's part in the Pacific war chiefly a matter of civilian effort while in British Columbia (which takes the Jap war as seriously as do we on the American side) he shouts that "Canada's war effort in the Pacific will be directed with UNREMITTING ENERGY until Japan is defeated."

These double-talking politicians! May heaven help us if we of the English-speaking world can't get rid of them.

RUTH ROBERTS INSTALLED NEW PRESIDENT OF B. P. W. C. MONDAY NIGHT

The B. P. W. C. held annual installation of officers Monday night at the clubhouse with Gene Mills, installing the following: Ruth Roberts, president; Ruth Hodgson, vice-president; Edna May Hayward, treasurer; Helen Neal, secretary; Stella Spencer, recording secretary; and Alvia Wetherell, sgt.-at-arms. A beautiful corsage of rosebuds and gardenias were given the new officers. The retiring president, Helen Saar, was the recipient of a beautiful red rosebud corsage and an attractive gift from the club.

The impressive initiation ceremony was presented by the following members representing the different points of the B. P. W. emblem: Thelma Young, Edna May Hayward, Vera Fredrickson, Mary Moore and Helen Neal. Those taking part wore attractive formal gowns.

Nance Atkins, membership chairman, called forth the new members and the following responded in the beautiful candle-lighting procession: Miriam Allen, Ruth Froman, Freda Childs, Margaret Atherton, Mrs. Delaney, Lorena Pease, Mattie Gosnell, Ivy Springer, Helen Westfall, Gladys Shelley and Dora May Williams. The retiring president, Mrs. Saar, presented corsages to her retiring officers.

The clubrooms were artistically decorated with large baskets of syringa and iris, while the table was decorated in pastel blossoms, tall lighted tapers and silver appointments. Ruth Roberts, new president, and Helen Saar, retiring president, poured. Delicious refreshments were served by the committee including: Florence Sneedaker, Gene Mills and Nance Atkins. Music for the evening was accompanied by Grace Crook.

Members present were: Nance Atkins, Esther Brown, Goldie Brunn, Verna Carothers, Grace Crook, Hazel Dixon, Ina Farnsworth, Inez Fox, Vera Fredrickson, Edith Gilmore, Dolma Groth, Edna Mae Hayward, Ruth Hodgson, Gene Mills, Mary Moore, Helen Neal, Ruth Roberts, Helen Saar, Elnor Sherk, Florence Sneedaker, Stella Spencer, Alvia Wetherell, Thelma Young, Miriam Allen, Ruth Froman, Lorena Pease, Gladys Shelley, Ivy Springer, Margaret Atherton and Dora Mae Williams.

CIRCLE NO. 2 TO ENTERTAIN CATHOLIC STUDENTS AT PARTY

Circle No. 2 of St. Joseph's Altar society was entertained by Miss Meta-Marie Amiot and Mrs. Ruby Scallan at the former's home Monday evening. Refreshments were served by the committee including: Florence Sneedaker, Gene Mills and Nance Atkins. Music for the evening was accompanied by Grace Crook.

Plans were made to entertain the students of St. Joseph's Catholic school at a party at the schoolhouse Sunday afternoon, May 20, at two o'clock. Mrs. Robert Spaneake and Mrs. Mary Lavson were appointed in charge of serving breakfast to the students the morning of June 1.

A lovely pink and blue shower was given by the group during the social hour to Mrs. Bruce Carter from Mrs. Paul Jenkins, Miss Madlyn Stearns, Miss Coletta Langenberg, Mrs. Sonnia Dayle, Mrs. Joseph Fox, Miss Cecelia Watzig, Mrs. Robert Spaneake, Miss Kay and Miss Annaloris Ward, members, and Father William Coughlan, Mrs. H. A. Watzig, Mrs. R. D. Bridges, Jr., guests, and a new member, Mrs. R. S. Ashenbrenner.

R. A. AND E. CLUB HAS ENJOYABLE MEETING WEDNESDAY AFTERNOON

Mrs. Henry Erskine graciously entertained the Roseburg Art and Embroidery club at her home on Cobb street, Wednesday afternoon. Beautiful bouquets of snapdragons, carnations, iris and geraniums were used about the rooms.

Following the business session, a social hour was enjoyed and two very interesting games were played and prizes awarded to the winners.

At the ten hour, Mrs. Erskine served delicious refreshments, assisted by Mrs. William Bailey and Mrs. C. M. Page. Those enjoying the afternoon with Mrs. Erskine included: Mrs. O. W. Laursen, of Portland, a guest, and Mrs. Lucia Ingels, Mrs. R. W. Rodgers, Mrs. P. Napier, Mrs. J. G. Stephenson, Mrs. W. C. Page, Mrs. George Chick, Mrs. A. D. Hawn, Mrs. C. W. Lawson, Mrs. Frank Bergh, Mrs. C. H. Bailey, Mrs. William Bailey, Mrs. E. Rhoads, Mrs. H. F. Snyder, Mrs. Henry Worthington, Mrs. T. Hoffmeister, Mrs. E. J. Cornell and Mrs. Charles Poirer.

The club will meet June 6 at the home of Mrs. F. J. Cornell on South Main street.

MRS. L. K. FIES IS HOSTESS TO BRIDGE CLUB WEDNESDAY NIGHT

Roses formed a very lovely motif for the delightful party given by Mrs. L. K. Fies Wednesday evening, when she graciously entertained her bridge club at her attractive home in Laurelwood.

Contract bridge was enjoyed with Mrs. M. C. Bowker winning the high score. Following the bridge play, Mrs. Fies served a lovely salad-supper to Mrs. Frederick Chapman, Jr., and Mrs. A. C. Fies, guests, and the following members: Mrs. M. C. Bowker, Mrs. Fred Lockwood, Mrs. O. R. Hess, Mrs. Maurice L. Hallmark, Mrs. E. A. Pearson and Mrs. Frank Long.

HOCRADEL-ROGERS PARTY GIVEN FOR MRS. MAUD DYE

Mrs. A. J. Hochradel and Mrs. Ethel Rogers were co-hostesses at a charming handkerchief shower and seven-thirty o'clock dessert-supper Thursday evening at the former's beautiful home on Overlook in compliment to Mrs. Maud Dye. Mrs. Dye and her daughter will leave Roseburg as soon as their school is out and return to their home in Navi, Hawaiian Islands.

A beautiful lace cloth covered the table, which was centered with an artistic arrangement of roses and tall pink tapers. Covers were placed for Mrs. Dye, guest of honor, her sister, Mrs. Harry Wallen, who is here from Los Angeles; Miss Genevieve Goodrow and her sister, Mrs. Shae, who is here from Chicago; Mrs. K. D. Lytle, Mrs. H. B. Carter, Mrs. Marie Nance, Miss Leota Wilson, Mrs. Harry Hirst, Mrs. Lillian Person, Mrs. Harry Winston and the hostesses, Mrs. Hochradel and Mrs. Rogers. Games were enjoyed during the pleasant social hour.

MOTHERS DAY DINNER ENJOYED SUNDAY AT F. D. COON HOME

A mothers day dinner was enjoyed at the home of Mr. and Mrs. F. D. Coon south of Dillard Sunday in honor of the former's mother, Mrs. Riley Peters.

Covers were placed for: Mr. and Mrs. Riley Peters, Mr. and Mrs. S. J. Buell, Mr. and Mrs. N. G. Buell and Mrs. Carrie Rice, all of Myrtle Creek, Mr. and Mrs. L. E. Coon, of Dillard, Mrs. M. F. Rice of Roseburg, and the host and hostess, Mr. and Mrs. F. D. Coon.

Tawanka

The Tawanka Camp Fire group met at the Fullerton school Thursday and made plans for a hike to take place Thursday, May 31. The group has been asked to meet at the Oak street bridge store at 10 a. m. Mrs. Paul Helweg and Mrs. Sig Fett, guardians, were present for the meeting and members in attendance included: Betty Jean Clarke, Virginia Cyrus, Marjorie Spaulding, Marcia Newland, Janna Beton, Sonya Fett, Paula Helweg, Cleona Miller and Lois Wallace.

DIAL-LOG

By SUSAN

We've been sitting here listening to Friday's edition of "Never Too Old" and feeling more than a little ashamed of our lack of energy when we hear the stories these youngsters of eighty-odd years tell. If you haven't been in the habit of listening to this half-hour show between 1:30 and 2, Monday through Friday, we'd suggest that you tune in. We promise you it will give you a new lease on life. However, this is Saturday and so you'll hear Rudolph Friml's "Va-g-a-b-o-n-d King" on Chicago Theatre of the Air at 8 this evening, plus the news and the ringside broadcast of the wrestling matches at the Roseburg armory beginning at 9:30.

Here are a few notes for your special attention on Sunday's shows. . . Eddie and Ida Cantor will be saluted on Sweetheart Time at 10:30 in the a. m.; Eldon Westley's story on Your America is entitled "Courage With a Smile. While the music is tops on this show, it's the story-teller, Mr. Westley, that lures us to dial 1490 each Sunday at 1:00. There's no need to mention the 1:30 Name That Song; we know it's your favorite show, too. "The Shadow" will be guest detective on the 3 o'clock "Quick As a Flash"; so, if you've been missing your old zig-zag, here's your chance to hear him again.

And here's an advance note for Monday: You'll hear Fulton Lewis, Jr., in a special half-hour speech from 2:30 until 3 on Monday afternoon. This is in addition to his regular 4 o'clock broadcast; so be sure to tune in.

Leaving for Home — Mrs. O. W. Laursen expects to leave the first of the week for her home in Portland, following several weeks in Roseburg convalescing from a major operation at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Bergh. She will be accompanied back to Portland by Mrs. Bergh, who will spend a few days visiting there.

TO THE BUSINESSMEN OF DOUGLAS COUNTY

How would a Labor Relations Advisory Council be able to service your business?

- 1. If you have made a wage raise to your employees since May 15, 1944 without applying to the War Labor Board for approval, then you are not in compliance with Wage Stabilization Laws Executive Order No. 9328. 2. If you have started a new business since January 1, 1942 in which you are engaged in the production of goods for commerce and have not applied to the War Labor Board for a wage rate approval for your various job classifications, you are not in compliance with the Wage and Hour Laws. 3. If the goods you produce are a part of a government contract order, or you are aiding in the production of goods for government contract in the amount of $10,000 per year, or more, you are covered by the Walsh-Healy Public Contracts Act. By recent amendment of Article 504 of the Walsh-Healy Act, you must keep an injury frequency rate chart. If you do not have one in effect, I can help you set one up, and show you how to use it. 4. If you have started a new business since May 15, 1944, and are not engaged in interstate commerce, or have raised wages since this date, and you have not applied for a wage rate approval, then I can help you. 5. If you do not understand clearly the Selective Service Act, or the rights or seniority privileges of the returning Veteran then I can aid you also. 6. If you have anyone in your employ under the age of 18 years earning less than 35c per hour, then you are not in compliance with both State and Federal Child Labor Laws. 7. If you do not know whether or not you are covered by the Fair Labor Standards Act, then I can help you. 8. If you do not know how to apply for adjustments to come within compliance of State and Federal Laws, then I can help you. 9. If you do not clearly understand just what Federal and State Laws do apply to your business, then I can help you. 10. If you are in doubt at all on any matter pertaining to: (1) Labor Relations (2) Wages and Hours (3) Child Labor (4) Apprentice and Trainee problems (5) Physically Handicapped Workers then I can answer your problems. I am here to help you, cooperate with you, and relieve you of a great many of your red tape worries. I have the answers and can aid you on any problem, great or small, pertaining to your business, and from time to time I will post further descriptive questions which may apply to your business for the purpose of describing the many points that this service will cover.

Please do not hesitate to call or write on any problem on which you are in doubt, or may be in doubt as to where you stand. We specialize in your problems. If you have red tape worries, or labor problems of any kind, let us relieve you of them. If it is not convenient for you to call at this office, write, and I will call on you.
