Mrs. G. R. Child

Announcing the gift of a new clubhouse for the Roseburg Woman's club from the club founder and its first president, Mrs. G. R. Child, high-lighted the jubilee banquet Monday evening, when the club celebrated its fiftieth anniversary at a six-thirty o'clock four-course formal affair at the Hotel Umpqua. Mrs. Child, who came from her home in San Francisco, to act as hostess for the evening was assisted in arrangements by the president, Mrs. G. V. Wimberly and the retiring and incoming officers of the club. The above photograph of Mrs. Child was taken while she was president of the club and Mrs. Wimberly's was taken during her presidency.

Mrs. Wimberly and Mrs. A. J. Geddes, the latter being the incoming president, acted as general chairmen and were assisted by Mrs. O. S. Chambers, Mrs. H. B. Carter, Mrs. A. S. Coen, Miss Estelle V. Conover, Miss Jennie E. Jorey, Miss Marie Martens, Mrs. H. O. Pargeter, Mrs. L. B. Riddle, Mrs. J. F. Dillard, Mrs. W. H. Richardson, Mrs. Foster Butler, Mrs. C. H. Bailey, Miss Helen Casey, Mrs. Len B. Fishback, Mrs. Harry F. Hatfield, Mrs. R. W. Marsters, Mrs. Morris H. Roach, Mrs. Velle Broadway, Mrs. Armour Murdock, Mrs. Earl Plummer and Mrs. Albert Micicelli. Assisting the general committee were: Mrs. S. A. Sanford, Mrs. Douglas Waite, Mrs. C. W. Wharton, Mrs. Homer W. Grow and Mrs. W. M. Campbell.

The long tables were elaborately decorated with oblong bouquets of mixed spring blossoms in pastel shades, flanked by tall gold-colored tapers in gold holders. Decorations were in charge of Mrs. Velle Broadway. Mrs. H. O. Pargeter, Mrs. C. W. Wharton and Mrs. L. J. Josse, assisted by Miss Helen Casey, Mrs. G. W. Marshall, Mrs. Randolph Flagg, Mrs. S. T. Smith and Mrs. Frederick J. Porter.

Mrs. Wimberly presented beautiful gold corsages to the charter members present including: Mrs. G. R. Child, Mrs. F. W. Benson, of Portland; Mrs. Marie Flint McCall, Mrs. Mabel Van Buren Moore, of Portland; Mrs. J. E. Sawyers, Mrs. J. F. Barker, Mrs. George M. Brown and Miss N. Jeannie Bulck. Corsages of silver were presented by Mrs. Wimberly to musical chairman including: Mrs. Arthur W. Baum, Miss Isabelle Curry, Mrs. J. H. Booth, Mrs. George Sewell, Miss Rosa B. Parrott and Mrs. George Kohl-hagen and to the guest vocal soloist of the evening, Mrs. Harrie Booth, who is a daughter of the incoming president, Mrs. Geddes.

Attractive corsages, arranged by Mrs. R. L. Whipple and Mrs. R. W. Marsters, were presented to the following past presidents of the club: Mrs. George Neuner, of McMinnville; Mrs. Washington Hughes, of Foster Butner; Mrs. A. G. McMillin, of Medford; Mrs. W. E. Ott, Mrs. Louis Kohl-hagen, Sr., Mrs. R. R. Brand, Mrs. W. M. Campbell, Mrs. R. Brown, Mrs. Harry F. Hatfield and to the retiring president, Mrs. G. V. Wimberly.

Beautiful program books with covers hand-decorated and arranged by Mrs. Wimberly were placed at each cover.

Mrs. Morris H. Roach, club chaplain, gave the invocation, which was followed by violin music by Mrs. Roach and piano selections by Mrs. Homer W. Grow.

Mrs. Wimberly, very graciously, gave the address of welcome with Mrs. F. W. Benson, second president of the club, giving a charming response. Mrs. Homer W. Grow acted as mistress of ceremonies and in a most delightful manner, introduced the guests, charter members, members of the musicale and past presidents, who responded with short talks. Past presidents unable to be present sent delightful letters of congratulations to the club.

Mrs. Marie Flint McCall, the third president of the club, very beautifully played two piano numbers: "Tranquility," Opus 121 by Arthur Brown and "Sweetest Story Ever Told" by R. M. Stoltz.

The address of the evening was given by Mrs. Child, who chose as her subject "Through Early Years," and at the conclusion of which made the announcement of her gift of a clubhouse to the Roseburg Woman's club. The members and guests rose in a body and expressed their deep appreciation and gratitude to the club's founder for her generosity and her faith in the Roseburg club.

Mrs. Harrie Booth, charming soprano, sang, "Then You'll Remember Me" by M. W. Balfe and "My Love Annie" by George Selby, accompanied by Mrs. Grow.

Miss Helen Casey, advisor of the Junior Woman's club, and the following club members: Mrs. J. E. Hentz, Miss Jeanne Hume, Miss Grace Covert, Mrs. Donald Metzger, Mrs. J. C. Giovanni and Mrs. Robert Harris, with Mrs. Frederick J. Porter as announcer, presented a dress parade of fashions worn during the last fifty years since the club was organized. Mrs. A. G. McMillin, of Medford, Mrs. G. V. Wimberly assisted. Music was played by Mrs. Grow and Mrs. Roach.

The evening's program closed by the group standing and joining hands while they sang, "Auld Lang Syne."

The club membership present included: Mrs. R. E. Crawford, Mrs. Homer Grow, Mrs. William Hoelt, Mrs. J. B. Needham, Mrs. Rose Clayton, Mrs. G. W. Marshall, Mrs. L. J. Josse, Mrs. S. L. Gibson, Mrs. K. D. Lyle, Mrs. F. W. Chase, Mrs. Armour Murdock, Mrs. Earl Plummer, Mrs. Donn Radabaugh, Mrs. Jean Everett, Mrs. Velle Broadway, Mrs. M. F. Rice, Mrs. J. D. Osborn, Miss Estelle V. Conover, Mrs. Herschel Scott, Mrs. S. L. Dillard, Mrs. Paul Elliott, Mrs. Rena Helbig, Mrs. V. J. Micicelli, Mrs. Annie L. Russell, Mrs. Washington Hughes, Mrs. Douglas Waite, Mrs. J. A. Carter, Miss Marie Martens, Miss Jennie E. Jorey, Mrs. H. O. Pargeter, Mrs. J. F. Dillard, Mrs. I. B. Riddle, Mrs. W. H. Richardson, Mrs. William Bailey, Mrs. A. J. Geddes, Mrs. Len B. Fishback, Mrs. E. L. Henninger, Mrs. L. W. Josse, Mrs. S. T. Smith, Mrs. Albert Micicelli, Mrs. Morris H. Roach, Mrs. R. A. Feenstra, Mrs. Kenneth Ford, Mrs. Earl Ulrich, Mrs. E. L. Knapp, Mrs. H. A. Jacobson, Mrs. Walter Good, Mrs. V. J. Hayman, Mrs. S. A. Sanford, Mrs. R. J. Whipple, Mrs. L. A. Finner, Mrs. A. H. Pomeroy, Mrs. C. D. Rice, Mrs. Randolph Flagg, Mrs. R. W. Marsters, Mrs. C. W. Wharton, Mrs. Ella Fenley, Mrs. George K. Quine, Mrs. Henry Carstene, Mrs. Maude Henry, Mrs. D. H. Morgan and Mrs. Frederick J. Porter. In addition, those present included: the club founder, 1944-45 president, musical soloists, her charter members and the past presidents.

Invitations to the banquet were printed in gold.

The following afternoon, May 15, the active past presidents of the Roseburg Woman's club had charge of the open-house and tea at the clubhouse from two to five o'clock. Mrs. W. M. Campbell acted as general chairman and was assisted by Mrs. Harry F. Hatfield, Mrs. W. R. Brown, Mrs. L. A. Wells, Mrs. Louis Kohl-hagen, Sr., Mrs. Foster Butner, Mrs. Washington Hughes, Mrs. A. G. Sutherland and Mrs. J. E. Sawyers. The past presidents were assisted by Mrs. F. W. Chase, Mrs. D. H. Morgan, Mrs. J. F. Dillard, Mrs. E. L. Knapp, Mrs. R. L. Whipple, Mrs. K. D. Lyle, Mrs. Len B. Fishback and Mrs. Kenneth Ford. Club members, members of the Junior Woman's club and friends were invited to enjoy the occasion.

Decorations were in charge of the same general committee, who decorated for the banquet. The lace-covered tea table was centered with a tiered and decorated birthday cake, the first piece of which was cut by Mrs. Child. The cake was flanked by low bowls of golden-colored tulips and mixed spring blossoms, white maline bows and tall white tapers. Photographs of Mrs. Child and the charter members of the club were taken by Mrs. C. W. Clark. The two beautiful silver services used on the table were loaned for the occasion by the president, Mrs. Wimberly, and Mrs. W. R. Brown.

Mrs. Wimberly and Mrs. Geddes received the guests, who greeted Mrs. Child, the founder, and the charter members. A feature of the affair was a long table placed along the north wall of the clubhouse, filled with a display of the numerous awards arranged by Mrs. R. Brown and Mrs. I. B. Riddle. The chairmen, assisted by Mrs. L. W. Josse, Mrs. S. A. Sanford, Mrs. J. E. Sawyers, Mrs. Louis Kohl-hagen, Sr., Mrs. George K. Quine, Mrs. W. H. Richardson, Mrs. Douglas Waite, Mrs. Marie Flint McCall, Mrs. W. W. Wofford, Mrs. Ray Hampton, Miss Avis Hampton, Miss Shirley Woods, Miss Lois Patterson and Miss Carole and Miss Carole Boucock.

Of special interest regarding the affair is that out of the thirteen living charter members of the 35-member club, eight were present for the banquet and the five remaining charter members sent delightful letters of congratulations and included: Mrs. Charles Curry, of Eugene, Calif.; Mrs. Sarah Wimberly Clevenger, of Grants Pass; Mrs. Frank Godfrey, of Portland; Mrs. Belle Willis Sherman, of Roseburg, (the latter being able to attend the jubilee tea the following day at the clubhouse) and Mrs. R. B. Houston, of San Gabriel, Calif.

Photographs taken at the tea can be purchased by members and friends of the club at Clark's studio.
