MISS GLADYS H. STRONG PRESENTS PUPILS IN TWO CHARMING PIANO RECITALS

Two very interesting piano recitals, one presenting only boys and the other grade school girls were given by Miss Gladys Strong on Wednesday and Thursday evening. These open the series of spring recitals to be given during May and June.

The boys' program on Wednesday evening included beginners as well as more advanced students. In addition to their playing, a demonstration of work from the theory classes was given. Stephen Hall told the story of Johann Sebastian Bach and Charles Plummer the story of Robert Schumann; Phillip Singleton gave the dynamic signs and meanings and Roland Shanklin the tempo signs and definitions. A brief quiz on other subjects was given by the class and also two rhythm band numbers.

A group of grade school girls gave the recital on Thursday evening. They also had a demonstration of theory work. Lois Patterson told the story of Mozart and Mollie Jeanne Maddox the story of Beethoven. Carmen Ford gave the dynamic signs and Donna Lee Bashford the tempo terms. Marcia Newland drew rhythm pictures of tulips with the class singing a tulip song. A quiz of general work and rhythm band were also given by the girls.

Both programs were well-received and the audience showed interest and enthusiasm for their work. They not only played well but showed that they are developing as well-rounded young musicians with a knowledge of the fundamentals of music.

On Wednesday evening the following boys were presented: Stephen Hall, Donald Sundberg, Phillip Singleton, Dick Stone, Tom Keel, Jerry Feldkamp, John Marvin Robertson, Roland Shanklin, Charles Plummer, Eddie Kay Jones, Sam Miller, Bob Hecher, Sheldon Chambers, and Donald Brand.

On Thursday evening the following girls were presented: Judith Willoner, Donna Lee Bashford, Virginia Cyrus, Mollie Jeanne Maddox, Marcia Newland, Darlene Diller, Carmen Ford, Patricia Plummer, Karen Kronke, Peggy Lou Knight, Sandra Bulington, Nancy Lou Neutinger, Molly Fullerton and Lois Patterson.

The next meeting will be a business session, June 14 at 8 o'clock at the temple with Mrs. K. D. Adams, Mrs. William Coulter and Mrs. Adrian Fisher, hostesses.

Tall baskets of stately Calla lilies and pink snapdragons, flanked by lighted candelabra, formed the setting for the beautiful service held at the First Baptist church in Mount Vernon, Wash., Saturday evening, April 14, when Miss Marian Louise Struzenberg, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Struzenberg, of Mount Vernon, became the bride of T/Sgt. Harry Lawrence Hill, son of Mr. and Mrs. Earl Hill, of Roseburg. The impressive double ring service was read by Dr. Arthur S. Lewis, interim pastor of the church, in the presence of a large group of relatives and friends.

As the wedding guests assembled, musical selections, favorites of the bride, were played on the pipe organ by Mrs. Winifred Smith, during which, Mrs. Alton Aney, a cousin of the bride, groomed in blue taffeta, and Miss Margaret Judy, in pink net, lighted the candles and the bride's mother was escorted to her seat by Charles Giles.

Immediately preceding the ceremony, the bride's sister, Miss Eleanor Struzenberg, sang, "Because" and "I Love Thee," accompanied by Mrs. Smith.

To the strains of the wedding march from "Lohengrin," the ushers, Charles Giles, David Hudson, Merton McKee, Jr., and Richard Fackler, took their places on either side of the altar.

Proceeding the bride were Mrs. Arthur Talsma, as bridesmaid, groomed in pink taffeta, and Miss Vivian Struzenberg, sister of the bride, as maid of honor, in blue taffeta. Both carried similar fan-shaped bouquets of white stock and pink carnations.

Little Carol Ann Arntzen, cousin of the bridegroom, in a floor length peach taffeta dress, served as flower girl.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, was very beautiful, in a gown of white marquisette, fashioned with deep lace yoke and panels of lace extending to the hem of the skirt in front and the length of the train. Rosebuds of self material outlined the sweetheart neckline and the long sleeves ended in traditional points at the wrist. Her lace-edged veil of fingertip length was held in place by a halo of pearls. She carried a shower bouquet of pink rosebuds, white snapdragons and stephanotis, centered with gardenias and rosebuds. Her only ornament was a heirloom bracelet, which had belonged to her paternal great, great grandmother.

As she proceeded down the candlelit aisle, she was met by the bridegroom, who was attended by Set. Ralph W. Garheart, his boy-

PEGGY LOU BLAKER IS COMPLIMENTED AT LOVELY BRIDAL SHOWER THURSDAY

Mrs. Will H. Gerretsen and Mrs. J. C. Hume and daughter, Miss Joanne, entertained at a charming seven-thirty o'clock desert-supper at the attractive Gerretsen home Thursday evening in compliment to Miss Peggy Lou Blaker, daughter of Father and Mrs. William Blaker, who will become the bride of Corporal John Beesley, of the U. S. army air base, Fresno, Calif., next Tuesday morning at 10:30 o'clock at St. George's Episcopal church.

Beautiful spring flowers carried out the pretty decorative motif for the occasion. The invited guests included the members of St. George's Episcopal choir and a few intimate friends. Covers hood friend, and Paul Thompson, a cousin of the bride.

Following the ceremony, a reception was held in the church parlors. In the receiving line with the bride party were the parents of the bride and bridegroom. For her daughter's wedding, Mrs. Struzenberg wore a street-length frock of fuchsia crepe, while Mrs. Hill, mother of the bridegroom, was groomed in soldier blue crepe. Both wore corsages of gardenias.

After the bridal couple had cut the first piece of their wedding cake, which was beautifully decorated with roses and white satin streamers, Mrs. Albert Thompson, aunt of the bride, continued serving. Presiding at the coffee urns were Mrs. Frank Giles, also an aunt of the bride, and Mrs. W. H. Hill and Sgt. Ralph Garheart, of Roseburg; Miss Mary Fred Hantelman and Mrs. Ray Ropes were in charge of serving and assisting were: Mrs. Alton Aney and Miss Margaret Judy, Miss Mary Thompson and Mrs. Ray Hartman, cousins of the bride, in charge of the gift table and Miss Eleanor Struzenberg had charge of the guest book.

During the reception, Will Ellis sang, "Ah, Sweet Mystery of Life," accompanied by Mrs. Smith.

For traveling, the bride wore a suit of ice-cream gabardine with fuchsia accessories and a corsage of gardenias and rosebuds. After a week in Oregon, the couple went to Denver, Colo., to make their home, while Sgt. Hill is stationed at near-by Lowry field.

Among out-of-town guests at the wedding were: Mr. and Mrs. Earl Hill and Sgt. Ralph Garheart, of Roseburg; Miss Mary Thompson, Enunclaw; Mrs. H. E. Hooper and Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Gootee, of Edmonds; and Mrs. George Wardell, Mrs. Ellen Allen, Carol Ann Arntzen, Miss Margaret Judy and Miss Tod Alkman, of Everett; Mr. and Mrs. Frank Giles, of Seattle; Mr. and Mrs. Charles Kelly, of Seattle; Mr. and Mrs. Bryan Doran, Mr. and Mrs. Merton McKee, Jr. and Mrs. Ben Graveline and Charles Pettit, of Burlington.

The bridegroom is very well-known in Roseburg, having attended the local schools and was graduated from senior high with the class of 1940. He went overseas with Company D, 162nd Infantry, 41st division, and served 32 months in the South Pacific war area.

Cecil Brunner roses and tall lighted tapers graced the lace-covered serving table used by Mrs. A. G. Henninger, when she entertained her bride club at a charming seven-thirty o'clock desert-supper at her beautiful home in Laurelwood Friday evening.

Covers were placed for: Mrs. Maurice J. Newland, a guest, and Mrs. S. J. Cooper, Mrs. A. D. Parr, Mrs. C. M. McDermott, Mrs. Frederick Chapman, Jr., Mrs. O. R. Hess, Mrs. Marshall Pengra, Mrs. Frederick J. Porter and the hostess, Mrs. Henninger.

Contract bridge was enjoyed during the pleasant evening hours with Mrs. Pengra winning the high score.
