Reception Honors Grand Guardian

Mrs. E. A. Britton

Mrs. E. A. Britton, Corvallis, grand guardian of Job's Daughters of Oregon, was guest of honor at a charming reception given by Roseburg Bethel No. 8 of Job's Daughters at the Masonic temple following the regular Bethel session Tuesday evening.

Mrs. Britton is a past guardian of Roseburg Bethel and was just recently installed as grand guardian of Oregon at the grand session held in Portland.

New officers of the Bethel were elected and included: Eileen Slattery, honored queen; Alice Harvie, senior princess; Ann Carter, junior princess; Georgene Shanklin, guide, and Shirley Jenkins, marshal.

Mrs. Britton, grand guardian, acted as installing officer of the new guardian council and was assisted by the vice-grand guardian, Esther Dunlap, of Eugene, as installing guide; Mrs. Fanny Lunnen, Glendale, installing marshal; Mrs. A. J. Young, installing chaplain; Mrs. R. L. Whipple, installing secretary, and Helen Saar, installing musician.

The new council includes: Mrs. Earl Plummer, guardian; R. B. Hampton, associate guardian; Mrs. W. C. Holmes, guardian secretary; Mrs. Frances Lintott, guardian musician; Mrs. H. H. Turner, guardian of sociability; Mrs. H. B. Carter, guardian of finance; Mrs. Earl Wiley, guardian of hospitality, and Mrs. Orlean Slattery, guardian of paraphernalia. R. B. Hampton was also installed as grand inner guard of Job's Daughters of Oregon.

Mrs. Ruby Matthews, Myrtle Creek, grand junior custodian of Job's Daughters of Oregon, was among the many out-of-town guests enjoying the affair. Special drills and honors were bestowed on the grand guardian, Mrs. Britton.

Mrs. Albert Micelli, retiring guardian of the Bethel, has completed two years of very successful work with the organization. Mrs. Micelli has given a great amount of her time to the improvement of the Bethel, and as a result, a fine membership is now enjoyed and the financial standing of the organization has been increased. She has been extremely popular with the membership and with her retirement and the election of the new guardian, Mrs. Plummer, the Bethel is anticipating continued success, as she has been active and cooperative in all Bethel projects.

Following the reception, refreshments were served.

THREE MINISTERS HONORED AT FAREWELL DINNER ON MONDAY EVENING

Rev. and Mrs. Len B. Fishback, Rev. and Mrs. R. A. Feenstra and Rev. and Mrs. Gale Putnam were guests of honor at a very delightful six-thirty o'clock dinner Monday evening given by the Ministerial association members and their wives at the First Presbyterian church.

The Fishback family plan to leave next week for Bend, Oregon. Rev. Mr. Feenstra is anticipating a new appointment at the state Methodist conference to be held in June. Rev. Mr. Fishback has been pastor of the First Christian church here; Rev. Mr. Feenstra is pastor of the Methodist church and Rev. Mr. Putnam is pastor of the Free Methodist church.

Iris and yellow snapdragons formed the artistic table bouquets, which were flanked by tall yellow tapers. Covers were placed for Rev. and Mrs. Len Fishback, Rev. and Mrs. R. A. Feenstra and Rev. and Mrs. Gale Putnam, guests of honor; Dr. and Mrs. Morris H. Roach, Dr. Charles A. Edwards, Rev. and Mrs. William Ross, Rev. and Mrs. Levi White, Captain Alma Crotty, Rev. and Mrs. Forrest Hill and Mrs. Ella McCoy, mother of Mrs. Feenstra.

Lovely farewell gifts were presented to the guests of honor. Short talks were given and a pleasant social hour, followed the dinner.

METHODIST KEYSTONE CLUB MEETS AT FISHER HOME MONDAY EVENING

The Methodist Keystone club May meeting was held on Monday at a 7:30 dinner supper at the attractive home of Mrs. Adrain Fisher in Laurewood, with Mrs. Bruce Elliott and Mrs. Paul Geddes assisting hostesses. Lovely bouquets of spring flowers were used about the rooms of the Fisher home. Twenty-four members and guests enjoyed the lovely affair.

The regular business of the club was transacted after which election of officers was held, with the following being elected: President—Mrs. Clifford Smith, Vice President—Mrs. Howard Pattison, Secretary—Mrs. Harold Rand.

Mrs. Clarence Rand has been the president the past year and a vote of thanks and lovely corsage was given her in appreciation of her fine work and the efficient way in which she has carried out the work of the club. Corsages were also given to the other outgoing officers Mrs. Ray Hampton and Mrs. Orville Dingle. After the business was taken care of the new officers took charge and lovely corsages were presented to them also. Plans were made for another skating party to be held on Monday June 4th and it was decided the club would meet during the summer months also.

Various plans were made for the future activities of the club and a pleasant year is looked forward to with the new officers in charge. All the past officers were thanked for their faithful work during the past year.

American Legion Auxiliary Activities

By Mrs. Claude Baker, Motto: We honor the dead by serving the living.

Sunday night at 9:15 over KRRN the auxiliary will present its regular radio program with Mrs. Harry Hatfield as the guest speaker. Mrs. Joe Deets will be solo artist accompanied by Mrs. Homer Grow at the piano. The theme of the program will be "Honor the Dead."

Did you buy your poppy? The veterans at the local Veterans Facility made over 100,000 of these which are to be sold in Douglas County. For this they received money for their personal needs or that of their families. It is often the only money they are able to earn during the year. The entire balance of the money received from the sales is spent in rehabilitation work for the veteran. It will be spent in Douglas County to help local men.

Receives Award

Miss Marion Slattery.

Miss Marion Slattery, who has received the Umpqua chapter, D. A. R. award for the best citizen chosen from the Roseburg Senior High school 1945 graduating class, and her mother, Mrs. Orlean Slattery, were guests of honor at a delightful meeting of the chapter Monday evening at the beautiful home of Mrs. E. B. Stewart at 944 Riverside Drive, in Laurewood. The D. A. R. annually gives a trip to the national capitol to the one girl for each state, who is chosen as the best all-around citizen in the state among senior graduates. Miss Slattery received a citizenship certificate and a pin from the D. A. R. and a gift from the Umpqua chapter, which was a lovely Spode souvenir plate of Continental Memorial hall, the national home of D. A. R. in the nation's capitol.

Other guests present were: Mary Esther Monger, Elizabeth Campbell, Mrs. Orrin T. Baker, Mrs. Marie Flint McCall and Mrs. Washington Hughes. Members enjoying the evening with Mrs. Stewart included: Mrs. George M. Brown, regent, Mrs. W. M. Campbell, Mrs. D. N. Busenbark, Mrs. C. P. Caylor, Mrs. F. H. Churchill, Mrs. R. H. Grinstead, Mrs. Walter V. Monger, Miss Margaret Page, Mrs. Ray S. Petrequin and Mrs. Douglas Waite.

The meeting opened by singing the national anthem and the salute and pledge to the flag, followed by the reading of the D. A. R. ritual and roll call. Officers of the chapter were re-elected for another year. Mrs. Ray S. Petrequin expressed on behalf of the members of the chapter, their sincere appreciation and thanks for the loyal and untiring work of the regent, Mrs. Brown. Mrs. Monger presented a report of the luncheon given in Medford in honor of the national president general, Mrs. Julius Young Talmadge.

An antique was presented to Umpqua chapter by Mrs. Walter V. Monger and it will be on display in the historical case in the courthouse for a time and then sent to the Oregon room in Continental hall in Washington, D. C. The antique is a gold band ring engraved and carrying the initials H. M. S. with tiny pendant heart. It was worn by a sister of a revolutionary soldier, an ancestor of Mrs. Monger.

The program on "War Poetry" was in charge of Miss Page. It was very interesting and inspiring and covered from 1500 B. C. starting with Moses' song of triumph, it covers through various nations and years to America and the present world war with the boys in the foxholes saying "Hello God" and ended on a helpful note of promise for future peace. Miss Page called particular attention to the ideology represented by the war poems of different nations.

Lovely refreshments were served. Mrs. Brown sat at the head of the main table and Miss Marion Slattery and Miss Elizabeth Campbell seated next.

The annual chapter picnic will be held June 18, the place of which will be announced later. The chapter will then disband until fall.
