DIAL-LOG
We hope you've been hearing Jean Goldkette's orchestra in the 6 to 6:30 time slot on Saturdays. If you've missed it so far, be sure to listen tonight, because it's really good music. And by that we don't mean the long-hair variety; just sweet, tuneful and good listening. "Bittersweet" is tonight's presentation on the Chicago Theatre of the Air from 8:00 until 9:00. Lots of good music in this spot, too. News at 9:00. Service Salute at 9:15, and the wrestling at the Roseburg armory at 9:30. All in all, there's entertainment for every taste on tonight's program, since it also includes Red Ryder at 7:30.

Tomorrow brings the best daytime listening of the week. Your favorite Name That Song, Nick Carter, Quack as a Flash, Dick Brown, Gabe Heatter and Cedric Foster, plus the 6:00 to 6:30 "Bookmarks" and the new "Off the Record" show at 6:45. Then there is Earl Wilson and Helen Hayes and the 7:30.

What's the Good Word? And ask you, what more could anyone want in the way of good listening?

Here's one advance note for Monday: Sherlock Holmes fans, don't miss the 10:15 Monday broadcast of your favorite sleuth, because this is his last show for the summer. He'll be back in the fall.

Visiting at Briggs Home—Mrs. Pearl E. Briggs, of Santa Monica, Calif., is visiting at the home of her son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Briggs, and family, on the Calkins road.
