DAILY DEVOTIONS

DR. CHARLES A. EDWARDS

There is hope for the world conferences, theories, discoveries, inventions are ineffective as man recognizes that only in the human heart. We may sweep the world clean of militarism. We may scrub the earth white of autocracy. We may hang on the walls thrilling pictures of freedom. We may carpet it with democracy and drape it with the flags of republicanism. We may show beautiful pictures of the signing of America's independence, or the inspiring portrait of "Joan of Arc." Yonder, the Magna Charter, and the stirring words of Garibaldi. We may spend effort and energy to make the world paradise itself, where the Lion of Capitalism can lie down with the proletariat lamb. But if we turn into that splendid room mankind with the same old heart, "deceitful," and "desperately wicked," we may expect to have to clean house again, not many days hence. What we need is a "Peace Conference," with the "Prince of Peace." Men are quite willing to wrangle for religion, write for it, fight for it, die for it. But the world today desperately needs men and women who will live for it. "Let me live the life of the righteous, that my last end may be like Him," (Arthur Brisbane.)—Allen.

St. PAUL'S LUTHERAN CHURCH
