Yankees Closing in on Enemy's Naha Air Field

invade the Japanese mainland."

Japanese Domei news agency warned the loss of the island would lead to increased air attacks, both from Okinawa-based planes and by superfortresses.

In American hands, the Naha airfield—it has at least three long runways—will serve as a potent base for bomber strikes against Japan proper, 325 miles to the north.

Admiral Nimitz gave further information on the stropg Japanese air attack on U. S. fleet units at Okinawa on Sunday, reporting that one U. S. light vessel was damaged and 45 enemy planes were shot down, 35 of them in air combat. This was 19 more than his previous count.

Pincers Closing on Japs

Converging columns of the U. S. 24th and 31st divisions made swift progress today on Mindanao island. Two centers of Japanese resistance have been broken in the past three days.

In a nutcracker move, these forces are now driving a big Japanese Davao garrison westward while the 31st is pushing inland garrisons toward the east.

Formosa took a 265 ton bombing Sunday while the 13th air force, the Seventh fleet airwing and the royal Australian air force smashed hard at assorted Borneo targets, walloping a variety of installations around British North Borneo's Brunei bay.

(A Melbourne radio broadcast said Australian troops had captured hill 102 on Tarakan, described as a height which dominates the eastern sector of the dwindling Japanese defeneses on the island off northeastern Borneo.

(Possession of this hill, said the Australian army headquarters, places the Aussies in position to move against the center of Japanese resistance.)

Free Election Pledged By Argentine President

BUENOS AIRES, June 5.—(AP)—President Farrell declared in a nation-wide radio address last night that the Argentine government's international commitments "will be fulfilled loyally, since this is the desire of the people."

Marking the second anniversary of the revolution, Farrell said he was determined to carry out the military government's promise to restore constitutional government through free elections. He did not say, however, when he would step out.

(A dispatch from Montevideo quoted a report from Buenos Aires as saying the government had closed a pro-allied junta which had been collecting money, clothing and food to aid war-stripped members of the united nations.)

Camp Adair to Be Army Replacement Depot

WASHINGTON, June 5—(AP)—Reports that Camp Adair, Ore., will become an army replacement depot were confirmed today by the War department.

Rep. James W. Mott said the War department informed him that the former training camp will receive from 12,000 to 16,000 men for overseas training. The soldiers will be sent as individual replacements, not as a unit.

The camp will be reactivated as soon as repair work—now underway—is completed.

The 56,715-acre military reservation was declared surplus last year, and 15,460 acres turned over to the surplus property board for disposal. A naval hospital was set up in the area this spring.
