SONG RECITAL TUESDAY EVENING

Mrs. Charles Brand presented some of her beginners and advanced pupils in a song recital Tuesday evening at the Baptist church. The stage was lovely with flowers and the girls looked charming in formals.

The singers did careful work and the interpretation was very good. The tone was sweet and pure without strain and the students were a credit to themselves and their teacher.

Recitals, besides giving pleasure to the singer's friends, are a valuable part of the training, for singers do not sing just for themselves but for their friends, and to some the first stage appearance is an ordeal. Freedom from nervousness and good stage presence can only be learned the hard way—by sitting to an audience—and in this case the audience was very appreciative.

The piano numbers played by Erma Martin, pupil of Miss Gladys Sirong, were finely played and greatly enjoyed by the audience.

Those taking part were Pat Pargeter, Donna Morberg, Ann Carter, Marilyn Preston, Sue Hahn, Ruth Collett, Christina Trapalis and Annaloris Ward. Mrs. Peggy Schroeder and Georgeine Shanklin ushered. Accompanists were Miss Gladys Sirong, Erma Martin and Betty Hahn.
