Hamburg Germans Scout Story of Hitler's Death

HAMBURG, June 21—(AP)—Rumors that Hitler is in the Hamburg area and talk of his possible capture within the city itself are increasing among German civilians once Joachim von Ribbentrop was picked up here. Residents to whom one correspondent talked in Germany's second largest city, where many other Nazi bigwigs have been arrested, do not believe the story of Hitler's death in Berlin. They are more disinclined than ever to lend credence to it since conflicting reports have been given as to how Hitler allegedly met death by men who contend they were on the scene.
