Ration System Forces Closures at Reedsport

REEDSPORT—Owing to the tightness of the OPA point system, the restaurants of Reedsport are beginning to feel the lack of food purchasing power and are either closing indefinitely or taking vacations. The Rainbow restaurant, operated by Jennie Baker, announces that it will close July 1, for an indefinite period or reopen under other management. The O. K. restaurant has already closed, but it is announced that it will reopen July 1 under new management, and the Square Deal restaurant, operated by Mr. and Mrs. Earl Hull, has been closed for the past week on account, of all things, the shortage of blue stamps.

The Hulls had a rather large inventory of canned goods and it was found that they were overstocked on pastry supplies. As their canned goods diminished the pastry stock did not keep pace with them, so their overstock of that line shortened them on the necessary blue stamps to replenish their canned goods.

"Kiwanis International heartily endorses Double-V Waste Paper Program. Clubs will be glad to cooperate in their communities!"

In these words a national spokesman for Kiwanis telegraphed its pledge to back up the Double-V Program.

You can do your part in making paper serve twice. Turn in every scrap of waste paper—to speed Victory. Urge your clubs to channel some of their funds from waste paper sales to help wounded veterans, or other worthy community projects. Remember, waste paper is war paper today—Save All You Can!
