DAILY DEVOTIONS
DR. CHARLES A. EDWARDS
 "Join thyself to the Eternal God, and thou too shall be eternal." (Augustine). The real taproot question of all time is what is life? There are many who say life can be expressed in chemical formula or physical science. What are we? Are we only eleven combinations of atoms, reacting to the drive of hunger, thirst and other physical desires, to the necessity for shelter and longing for place and powers, or are we abiding personalities, sharing in an eternal purpose motivated by love, truth and honor? Immortality is not simply a matter of future concern, it is a matter of present experience. The Gospel of the Christ is the disclosure of the deepest reality of God through the highest nature of man. He alone has truly estimated the greatness of man. His divine origin and destiny and the vast possibilities of His nature. He died upon the cross because of His conviction that men are sons of God here and now. And sons heirs of all that is and is to be. The realization of this fact and the living of life in this revelation. That is religion, that is life.—Amen.

Dixon as superintendent. The Methodist Youth Fellowship meets for discussion and worship at the chapel with Miss Eugenia Work as leader. There will be no evening service since this is Conference Sunday.
