Marry At Beautiful Ceremony

Tall baskets of stately calla lilies against a background of Madonna lilies flanked by lighted candelabra formed the setting for the beautiful service held Sunday, June 17, at the Presbyterian church in Roseburg when Miss Athalie Taylor, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Archie Taylor became the bride of Sgt. Edward Fobes Marcell, of Portland, son of Mr. and Mrs. H. J. Kniskern. In the presence of over four hundred friends and relatives, the impressive double ring service was read by Dr. Morris Rouch.

As the wedding guests assembled, musical selections were played by Mrs. Homer Grow. Immediately preceding the ceremony Miss Marilyn Harpham sang "Because."

To the strains of the wedding march from "Lohengrin" the bridal party approached the altar. Preceding the bride were her two bridesmaids, Miss Marjorie Ott and Miss Patricia McClintock, attired in lovely yellow and blue formal. Both carried similar bouquets of yellow roses and pink baby gladioli surrounded by pink and white sweetpeas. Rudolph Ritzman, uncle of the groom, acted as best man and the ushers were James Moran and Earl Ward.

The bride was very beautiful in a gown of starched white chiffon fashioned with long puff sleeves ending in tight cuffs. Her wide edged veil of fingertip length was held in place by a wreath of tiny white waxed orange blossoms. The bride carried a white Bible topped with a silver bouquet of a single orchid tied with stephanotis.

The bride's mother, Mrs. Archie Taylor, wore an aqua afternoon formal with pink accessories. The bridegroom's mother, Mrs. H. J. Kniskern wore a grey street length dress with pink accessories. Both mothers wore identical corsages of gardenias surrounded by baby gladioli.

The matron of honor, Mrs. William Shoun of Eugene, was gowned in a blue marquisette formal.

Among out of town guests were: the groom's parents, Mr. and Mrs. H. J. Kniskern of Waldport; Mrs. William Shoun, of Eugene; Mrs. Glenn Owens of Eugene; W. A. Stephenson of Medford, Li. and Mrs. Donald E. Crouch of Portland, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Stearns and daughter, Madeline, of Oakland; Mr. and Mrs. Hugh Whipple and children, Janice and Jimmy, of Drain; Mr. and Mrs. Leslie Haggerty and daughter, Myrna, of Reedsport; Mrs. Guy Cordon and Mrs. Alan Cordon of Washington, D. C.

Following the ceremony a lovely bridal party was held in the attractive garden at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Archie Taylor, on Madrone avenue. The green and white organically covered table was centered with a four tiered wedding cake topped by the traditional bride and groom under an archway. Low bouquets of white summer flowers added to the already attractive table.

Mrs. Rudolph Ritzman, aunt of the groom, Mrs. Clair K. Allen, Mrs. Grant Osborn and Mrs. Herbert Quine poured and were assisted in serving by: Mrs. George Eckert, Mrs. Donald White, Mrs. Dayton Brown, Mrs. John Giovinini and Mrs. Charles Hart. The guest room was in charge of Miss Joanne Hume and Mrs. Virginia Rordian and Mrs. Charles Harry had charge of the guest book.

For traveling the bride wore a robin egg blue suit with white accessories. After a short honeymoon in eastern Oregon the couple will make their home temporarily at Olympia, Washington.

The bride and groom are both very well known in Roseburg, the bride having attended the local schools, and the groom having spent the past summers here.

Marry In Portland

Sgt. and Mrs. Clifford W. Carter

Miss Mildred Frohmader of this city, beautiful daughter of Mrs. Ruth Frohmader, became the bride of Sgt. Clifford W. Carter of Butte, Montana, now in the U. S. Marine corps, at a very impressive ceremony, May 27, at 2 p. m. Rev. Jesse W. Bunch performed the impressive double ring ceremony at the Methodist church in Portland in the presence of fifty friends and relatives.

Mrs. Jesse Bunch played the "Lohengrin" wedding march on the organ.

Candelabra, holding tall cathedral candles, and beautiful spring flowers in low bowls decorated the altar.

The bride, who was given in marriage by her mother, was very beautiful in a white street length dress, and carried a white Bible topped with a bouquet of lavender orchids and Cecil Bruner roses tied with white satin streamers.

Miss Francis Gilbert of Portland, roommate of the bride, was maid of honor, and was charming in a light blue crepe dress with brown accessories. Her corsage was of gardenias and Cecil Bruner roses.

Sgt. Donald E. Pease, USMC, Cle Elum, was best man and ushers were: Sgt. George M. Lander, USMC, of Quincy, Mass., and Sgt. James J. Campbell, USMC of New York City.

Mrs. Ruth Frohmader, mother of the bride wore a navy blue suit with white accessories. Both mothers wore corsages of gardenias.

Following the ceremony a dinner was served at the Hotel Benton dining room for the relatives and bridal party. A lovely wedding cake graced the center of the table. Those attending the dinner included: Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Carter, Mrs. Charles Carter, Mrs. Ruth Frohmader, Miss Francis Gilbert, Sgt. Donald E. Pease, Sgt. George M. Lander and MT/Sgt. James J. Campbell.

UMPQUA MINERAL CLUB ENJOYS INFORMAL EVENING

Mr. and Mrs. Theo Bond graciously entertained the members of the Umpqua Mineral club at their spacious home on Moore street the night of Wednesday, June 13.

A delicious potluck dinner was served at 7 o'clock, the guests sitting down at a long, beautifully-appointed table centered with a crystal of cornucopia of Paul's Scarlet roses.

Leslie Roberts, president, conducted a short business session and then the meeting was turned over to Dorothy Teater, program chairman, who arranged something a little different in the way of entertainment.

The first feature was a quiz, "Rock Hound's Quandary," written and propounded by Marjorie Pettit, which stirred up a great deal of amusement. First prize for high score went to Jack Wharton, while second prize was carried off by Mrs. Roy Rose.

The second part of the program was a quiz of a more serious nature presented by Everett Teater. This resulted in a great deal of head-scratching and pencil-chewing. High score in this quiz went to Leslie Roberts. Jack Wharton and Mrs. Roberts tied for second place, while Mrs. Theo Bond and Mrs. Roy Rose tied for third. Consolation prize went to Theo Bond and Clair Pettit, who split a thunder egg between them. A special prize was awarded to Miss Rose Emily Bond for her unusually high score. The prizes, all choice specimens of rocks and minerals, were donated by Everett Teater.

Guests present were Miss Nancy Roberts and Clair Pettit.
