D. C. F. P. A. HAS ANNUAL PICNIC

The annual picnic dinner of the Douglas County Forest Protective association was enjoyed Saturday at 12 o'clock at the association's headquarters, north of Roseburg, by a large number of wardens, lookouts and employees with wives and friends as guests.

Dwight Phipps, assistant state forester; Lee Harter, state inspector; Ed Schroeder, state co-ordinator; and W. F. McCulloch, formerly assistant state forester and now professor of forestry at Oregon State college, were in attendance.

Fred L. Southwick, state warden, was in charge and was assisted by Everett Beach, assistant district warden and H. H. Turner, F.F.E. training officer.

At 11 a. m. Mr. McCulloch showed colored motion pictures, which he had taken throughout the state. Mr. Southwick outlined the work of the association and Lee Harter explained his work and how the lookouts and employees could best help in the program. Lookouts were given instruction in fire-fighting.

At 12 o'clock, a bountiful luncheon was served, after which the employees and guests enjoyed two films shown by Mr. Phipps and explained by Mr. Schroeder. U. F. McLaughlin outlined the work of the fire crews, after which the crews held a demonstration of fire-fighting and Mr. Phipps gave a talk on Japanese balloons.

A highlight of the luncheon was a talk given by H. C. Berg on the Seventh War loan drive. Mr. Berg urged all employees and guests to purchase war bonds and cited a few incidents reported by men in the service back from the south Pacific war area in which they urged the American public to keep supporting the war effort by buying bonds.

Those present were: Dwight Phipps, W. F. McCulloch, Ed Schroeder, Mr. and Mrs. Fred L. Harter and sons, Alan, Grant and James; Mr. and Mrs. H. H. Turner and daughters, Cynthia and Carolyn, and son, Howard; Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Woolley, Ethel Woolley and Christine Hunt, of Drain; Dick Phipps, Mr. and Mrs. L. T. Swenson, Mrs. W. C. Baughman, Mr. and Mrs. Dexter Baughman, Vern Childers, John Hall, Mrs. F. M. Ryther, Mr. and Mrs. Charles H. Crouch, Phyllis Crouch, Mrs. John Hall, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Teller and family; Mrs. J. Boyd Rader, Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Booker, Mr. and Mrs. J. E. White, Mr. and Mrs. William Joslyn, H. S. Teller, Ted Schosco, F. A. Tripod, Oliver Martin, Murray McNabb, Charles Crouch, Mr. and Mrs. A. N. Arnold, Mrs. Edyth Gilmour, Miss Phyllis Hinsdale, Clinton Bamber, Joe Gray, Mr. and Mrs. Charles F. Wilson, C. F. Moore, Crete Carroll, Carl, Pearl, Norma, Boyd, Lee and Larry Thornton, Mr. and Mrs. V. S. Woodruff, Mr. and Mrs. Jess Mitts, Miss George Shanklin, Miss Marje Stephens, Mr. and Mrs. L. R. White, Phyllis Crouch, Mr. and Mrs. Howard L. Church and sons, Bill and Bud, Mr. and Mrs. Everett C. Beach and son, Paul, daughter, Juliana, Joe Morgan, Mrs. L. J. Crafton and Mrs. Frederick J. Porter.

Guests attending the affair report it to be the largest and finest picnic and program to date to be sponsored by the association. The grounds of the association are especially beautiful with spacious green lawns and blooming shrubs and flowers.

MISS ELIZABETH CAMPBELL COMPLIMENTED AT SHOWER

Mrs. O. S. Chambers, Mrs. Armour Murdoch and Mrs. Jean Edwards were joint hostesses at the Chambers' lovely home in Laurelwood Saturday evening for a bridal shower which was held in honor of Miss Elizabeth Campbell, charming daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. M. Campbell of this city.

The rooms were artistically decorated with mixed bouquets of summer flowers and white and coral sweet peas graced the lace-covered dining table.

Refreshments were served and the hostesses were assisted by Mrs. C. A. Brand and Mrs. Fred Fisher who poured.

Many useful and beautiful gifts were presented to the honored guest, Miss Campbell, from: Mrs. Morris Roach, Mrs. Glen Wimberly, Mrs. C. D. Fies and daughter, Eleanor, Miss Gladys Strong, Mrs. W. H. Richardson, Miss Dolma Grobe, Mrs. Clair Allen and daughter, Mrs. Harry, Mrs. Homer Grow, Mrs. C. A. Braud, Mrs. George Brown, Mrs. Washington Hughes, Mrs. George Houck, Mrs. A. A. Wilder, Mrs. Earl Ulrich, Mrs. E. L. Knapp, Mrs. Otto Harrah, Mrs. Alvia Wetherall, Mrs. Helen Sarr, Mrs. Earl Plummer, Mrs. Frank Bergh, Mrs. M. E. RIVERSDALE HAPPY HOUR CLUB MEETS WEDNESDAY

The Riversdale Happy Hour club met Wednesday at the home of Mrs. Vance Cox. The meeting was held at this time instead of the usual date, due to the departure of her son, Jim Smith, on Wednesday, June 15, to join the marine corps. Mrs. T. R. Burr was assistant hostess and an appropriate hot weather dessert of fairy pie and iced tea were served.

Mrs. Bert Kruse was chosen to act as president until the next election since Mrs. E. C. Wimer was unable to be present and is leaving the community within a short time.

Members present were: Mrs. Walter Barry, Mrs. Edwin Booth, Mrs. C. J. Bradley, Mrs. Ned Dixon, Mrs. Dale Guicy, Mrs. Robert Harmon, Mrs. Bert Kruse, Mrs. Charles Lee, Mrs. W. E. Ott, Marjorie Ott, Mrs. W. M. Stark, Mrs. Bernard Young, a new member, Mrs. M. H. Humphrey, the hostesses, Mrs. Cox and Mrs. Burr and Mrs. Cox's mother, Mrs. Jim Howe.

The group was entertained by a program consisting of two accordion solos by Mrs. Burr, accompanied by Mrs. Cox and two vocal duets by Mrs. Harmon and Mrs. Bailey. Mrs. Young held the group completely absorbed by the dramatic story of her trip with husband and infant son from Honolulu to the United States early in 1942.

The next meeting will be held Wednesday, July 11, at 2 p. m. at the home of Mrs. Bernard Young, assisted by Mrs. Edwin Booth. Mrs. Young requests each member to bring an antique and be prepared to tell its history.

ART AND EMBROIDERY CLUB HAVE MEETING WEDNESDAY

The Roseburg Art and Embroidery club met Wednesday at the home of Mrs. I. F. Snyder on Cobb street. The rooms were decorated with sweet peas, roses and pansies.

Following the business session Mrs. C. H. Bailey gave a very interesting talk on China. Refreshments were served by the hostess, Mrs. Snyder, assisted by her daughter and granddaughter, Mrs. Marjorie Miles and Mary Jean Miles, to the following guests: Mrs. Frank Kent, Mrs. C. W. Lawson, Mrs. Henry Erskine, Mrs. Ora Worthington, Mrs. Margaret Rodgers, Mrs. C. H. Bailey, Mrs. Frank Cornell, Mrs. Frank Bergh, Mrs. William Bailey, Mrs. Jim Stephenson, Mrs. Carlos Page, Mrs. Alfred Hoffmeister, Mrs. Lucia Ingels and Mrs. L. A. Miles.

The next meeting will be held Wednesday, July 11, at the home of Mrs. Henry Erskine at 909 Cobb street.
