Junior Red Cross Gifts To Armed Forces Noted

Members of the Douglas County Junior Red Cross have well-earned recognition in helping supply some of the needs of our armed forces. Many schools in the county have done outstanding work, and among them are Fullerton and Benson in Roseburg, and Sutherlin and Days Creek.

Among the numerous articles which have been completed and packed ready for shipment to headquarters in San Francisco, where they will be distributed, according to Mrs. Rudolph Ritzman, chairman of Douglas County Junior Red Cross, are: 169 joke books, 28 bound short stories, 29 crossword puzzle books, 12 crossword puzzle sheets, 78 menu sticks, 1 box containing numerous stuffed toys, and a wool afghan which was woven on hand looms by the second grade of Fullerton school.

During a week's time a shipment of 2800 joke books, 3
