"From where I sit on this South Pacific Island, wartime laundry service back in the good old U. S. A. looks pretty good. I wash my socks, shorts and shirts in my helmet. I hang my 'Laundered (?)' shirt on a bush to dry and expect a bug or two to hide in it! I press my clothes under my blanket or not at all—there isn't much ironing equipment in a fox hole and the only starch is in a guy's backbones. Yet I understand that some of my friends back in the U. S. A. are complaining about wartime laundry service! When this thing is over, I'll be back to help my old boss in the laundry. Until then, do me a little favor—carry on."
