Walter Durch, Graduate of R. H. S., Sheila O'Doherty Marry in Seattle

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Durch

St. John's Catholic church, Seattle, Wash., was the scene Saturday morning, June 16, of the wedding of Miss Sheila O'Doherty, attractive daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William V. O'Doherty, and Walter A. Durch, U. S. Navy son of Mrs. P. A. Durch and the late Mr. Durch of Roseburg.

The wedding ceremony was performed by the Rev. Wm. Quigley, pastor of St. John's, who also said the nuptial mass. Rev. Wm. Power was present in the sanctuary.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a gown of white slipper satin and tulle. Her veil of illusion attached to a tiara of seed pearls, fell gracefully the length of the train. The bride carried orchids and white carnations.

Mrs. Charles Tobin, matron of honor, was gowned in dusty rose tulle with flowered tulle hat, and carried lavender sweet peas and yellow rosebuds.

The bridesmaids, Miss Kathleen O'Doherty, sister of the bride, and Miss Caroline Griffin were matching gowns and caps of pale green net, and carried bouquets of pink sweet peas and yellow rosebuds. Charles Tobin was best man for Mr. Durch. The altar was very beautifully decorated with calla lilies, mock orange blossoms and pink carnations and combined with the bright sunlight filtering through stained glass to make an impressive picture of the beautiful church.

Under the direction of Mrs. Wm. O'Doherty, mother of the bride, the Diocesan Women's Choral group rendered the music for the ceremony.

A breakfast at the Edmond Meany hotel followed the church ceremony.

In the evening a reception was held at the home of the bride's parents. Mrs. Edward Glennon and Mrs. B. J. Cavanaugh poured, assisted by Mrs. R. J. Nelson, Mrs. Charles Meyer, Bettyann Nelson, Margaret Glennon and Mrs. John H. Griffin.

Out of town guests from Victoria, B. C., and Spokane, Wash., were present.

For going away, the bride wore a suit of gray wool with white accessories and an orchid corsage.

Mrs. Durch is a graduate of Holy Name academy, Seattle. Mr. Durch is a graduate of Roseburg Senior High school.

Golden Wedding Anniversary Celebrated At Dixonville by Mr. and Mrs. O. C. Brown

Mr. and Mrs. O. C. Brown observed their 50th wedding anniversary in the form of a lawn party Sunday, July 1, in the beautiful setting of a green lawn surrounding the white cottage home of the bride and groom of 50 years ago at Dixonville. Outstanding was the wonderful dense shade of the surrounding maple trees, carried from the forest and planted by Mr. and Mrs. Brown during the first year of their married life. The spacious lawn was plentifully supplied with benches and chairs for the convenience of guests promoting comfort and visiting during the afternoon.

Open house was held and the many beautiful gifts were displayed in the dining room.

The actual wedding dress and suit worn by the bride and groom, dating back to the "Gay Nineties" were featured by Mrs. Harry Loomis, niece, Mrs. Minnie Brown, and her nephew, George Loomis. The floor length gown of cream colored tulle-trimmed with ab lace was fashioned with balloon styled sleeves. The five-yard hemline and sleeves were both backed with ermine. The groom's suit was of the conventional black broadcloth.

Mr. Loomis and Mrs. Minnie Brown preceded the bride and groom in the march to the table, where Mrs. Gertrude Hatfield introduced the couples before the elderly bride, who was gowned in a lovely black lace dress adorned with white pearls and a strand of pearls, cut the beautiful wedding cake.

The yard and table decorations were in charge of Mrs. R. L. Matthews and Mrs. Harry Hatfield. The table was covered with a lovely satin damask linen cloth, embroidered and hemstitched by Mrs. Brown for her hope chest fifty years ago.

Refreshments which were served throughout the afternoon were in charge of the following office friends: Mrs. Joe Brumbeck, sandwiches; Carl Hill, punch; Mrs. Vernon LaRaut and Mrs. George Short, coffee; Mrs. P. W. Cook and Mrs. George Loomis, tea; Mrs. Dale Hatfield, cake; and those who assisted in serving were: Mrs. Clifford McKay, Mrs. Quincy Brown, Mrs. W. H. Pearce, Mrs. D. P. McKay, Mrs. Narcisse LaRaut, Mrs. H. F. Churchill, Miss Rosa B. Parrott, Mrs. Elsie Cannon Rhoten, Mrs. Marie Flint McCall and Mrs. Harry Hatfield.

The afternoon was enlivened by many beautiful selections of music by R. L. Matthews and Carl Busch on the violin and organ accompaniment.

Old time friends and relatives enjoying the day with the Browns were: Mr. and Mrs. Narcisse LaRaut, Rex and Elsie (Khoten) of Salem, Mrs. D. P. McKay, Mr. and Mrs. Vernon LaRaut and daughter, Verna Lee, Mrs. Eva King, Mr. and Mrs. Clifford McKay, Mr. and Mrs. George Short, Mr. and Mrs. Calvin Henry and children, Laura and Scott, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Broszko and children, Geraldine and Ryland, of Wilbur, Mr. and Mrs. P. W. Cook of Sutherlin, Mr. and Mrs. E. G. Young, and Mr. and Mrs. Earl F. Strong of Oakland, Mr. and Mrs. P. E. Cooper, Paul Jenkins, Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Herman, Mrs. Elmer Estelle, Mr. and Mrs. E. B. Estelle, Mrs. Glen Ross, Gertrude Raut, Mr. and Mrs. Harold McKay, Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Marks, Mrs. Mary Matthews-Hill, Mrs. Gertrude Matthews, Miss Mazie Walker, Mr. and Mrs. A. E. Kent, Mrs. Lula C. Gorrell, Mrs. Edith Churchill, Mr. and Mrs. George Churchill, Mrs. Helen C. Trueblood, Mrs. Jeannette R. Hewitt, Miss Irene Walker, Miss Olive Walker, Mrs. Pitzer Beckley, Mrs. W. N. Fifty years ago when Ella Hill became the bride of O. C. Brown, both of pioneer parentage, at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. G. Hill at Wilbur, Mr. and Mrs. Wilbur Brown, Mrs. D. P. McKay, Mrs. Elsie Cannon Rhoten, Mrs. Violet Brown Estelle and Mr. and Mrs. Narcisse LaRaut were present and were also present at the fiftieth anniversary.

Both Mr. and Mrs. Brown attended the old Umpqua academy at Wilbur, which at that time was the only institution of higher learning between Salem and Sacramento. Mr. Brown was for many years school superintendent of Douglas county and vice-president of the Central Oregon Normal school at Drain. He was also a member of the state legislature in 1893. Mrs. Brown, who

Cpl. Henry Bailey, Jr., Verna Guile Wed at Colorful Church Ceremony

Cpl. and Mrs. Henry Bailey, Jr.

Miss Verna Guile, lovely daughter of Mr. and Mrs. H. J. Guile, of Roseburg, became the bride of Cpl. Henry Bailey, Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Bailey, of Pasquet, Friday, June 24, at 2 o'clock at St. George's Episcopal church.

The impressive double ring service was read by Rev. William L. Blaker, pastor of the church. The wedding guests assembled musical selections were played by Mrs. Robert Kelly. Immediately preceding the ceremony, Mrs. Verna McClintock Jones sang "O Perfect Love." To the strains of the wedding march from Lohengrin, the bridal party approached the altar. Preceding the bride were her two bridesmaids, Mrs. Harold Cacy and Mrs. Barbara Ann McBea, niece of the bride, in lovely pink and blue net formal and matching off-the-face hats. Both carried similar bouquets of roses, carnations and gladioli.

William Miller, brother-in-law of the bride, acted as best man and the ushers were H. H. Turner and J. P. Motschenbacher.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, was very beautiful in a white satin and marquisette dress, with Juliet cap of seed pearls holding in place her finger tip veil. She carried a cascade bouquet of white roses and orchids.

The bride's mother, Mrs. Hugh Guile, wore a light blue suit with white accessories and her corsage was of gardenias. Mrs. Henry Bailey, mother of the bridegroom, wore a beige street length dress with black accessories and a gardenia corsage. The matron of honor, Mrs. William Miller, sister of the bride, was gowned in a pink marquisette formal with a small flowered hat and carried a bouquet of roses, carnations and baby gladioli.

Among the out-of-town guests were Mr. and Mrs. Lewis McBea and Mr. and Mrs. Gladye Bruton, all of Eugene.

Following the ceremony a reception was held at the home of the bride's brother-in-law and sister, Mr. and Mrs. Albert Weiss on Main street. The lace-covered table was centered with a white magnolia, graced by tall tapers, with a four-loved wedding cake topped by the traditional bride and groom under an arched canopy. Low bouquets of white summer flowers charmingly graced the rooms. Mrs. J. F. Motschenbacher cut the cake after the first slice had been cut by the bride and groom. Mrs. Lewis McBea, sister of the bride, and Mrs. Elmer Hurd, poured.

For traveling the bride wore a pink suit with white accessories and an orchid corsage. They will spend their honeymoon on the coast.

Cpl. and Mrs. Bailey are both graduates of Roseburg High school. He will report to Sioux Falls, S. D., for assignment. Cpl. Bailey recently returned from 18 months overseas.
