A background of laurel sprays and regal lilies, flanked by huge baskets of lilies and gypsophylla and tall candelabra holding white cathedral candles formed the impressive setting for the wedding of Miss Mary Jeanne Gilkeson, lovely daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth L. Gilkeson, of Roseburg, and Hjalmer Arthur (Bob) Johnson, son of Mrs. Astrid Johnson, of Klamath Falls, Thursday evening, July 5, at the First Presbyterian church. Dr. Morris H. Roach performed the nuptials at eight o'clock in the presence of two-hundred relatives and friends.

Following the ceremony, Mrs. Homer W. Grow, played softly on the pipe organ, followed by Mrs. E. G. Randolph, of Medford, an aunt of the bride, singing, "I Love You Truly" and "The Lord's Prayer." With the opening strains of the Bridal Chorus from Lohengrin, the bride and groom advanced down the aisle, which was decorated with white ribbons and bows. The church decorations were in charge of Mrs. Clyde Henninger; Mrs. J. F. Dillard and Mrs. L. E. Henninger.

The bride, who was given in marriage by her father, was beautiful in a formal wedding gown of white marquisette, fashioned with a white lace bodice with the neckline outlined with a band of marquisette and seed pearls. The sleeves were full length and a row of tiny buttons fastened the waist at the back. Her finger-tip wedding veil was edged in lace and was fitted with a headband of orange blossoms. She carried a shower bouquet of pink rosebuds.

The maid of honor, Miss Betty Jane Gilkeson, sister of the bride, was charming in a pink mar-quisette formal gown, fashioned with a lace peplum. The two bridesmaids, Miss Jeanne Dillard and Miss Carmen Abeel, wore formal gowns of blue matching the maid of honor's in design. The three attendants wore attractive white Juliet headresses and white gloves. The maid of honor carried a shower bouquet of pink and white rosebuds and the bridesmaids carried matching bouquets of yellow rosebuds.

The bride's mother was attractive in a formal gown of aqua with a white and aqua turban and corsage of gardenias. Keith Custer, of Coquille, acted as best man to the bridegroom and Thomas Hubbard and Harold Hiney, both of Roseburg, served as ushers.

At the close of the ceremony, Mrs. Grow played Mendelssohn's Wedding recessional for the bridal party to leave the altar. Immediately following the ceremony, a reception was held in the attractive garden at the home of the bride's uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. E. S. Hall at 833 Military street. The bridal party, standing before a beautiful arbor covered with Dorothy Perkins roses, received the guests.

The bride's table, covered by an exquisite lace cloth, was decorated by Mrs. J. Earl Pickens. Pink rosebuds and gypsophylla, flanked by tall white tapers, oraced the center of the table. The wedding cake, which was cut by the bride and bridegroom, was a three-tiered affair topped by a miniature bridal couple. The cake was served by Mrs. E. G. Randolph and Mrs. A. G. Henninger; Mrs. J. L. Marsters, an aunt of the bride, Mrs. J. Earl Pickens and Mrs. Louis Kohlhaagen, Sr., presided at the punch bowl and

FLOYD D. ZEHRUNG AND KATHRYN LULEK MARRY AT MYRTLE CREEK, JUNE 23

At a quiet and impressive ceremony at the home of Mr. and Mrs. C. D. Zehring in Myrtle Creek, Miss Kathryn Lulek, daughter of Mrs. Katherine Lulek of Orient, Ill. became the bride of Floyd D. Zehring, MOMM 1-c, U. S. navy, son of Mr. and Mrs. C. G. Zehring, June 23. Rev. E. W. Powell performed the single-ring ceremony.

The bride was lovely in a pastel blue-colored suit with matching hat and white accessories. She wore a gardenia corsage. Mrs. Harlan Zehring, of Seattle, was matron of honor and was charming in an orchid-colored suit with flower hat and a corsage of carnations. Frank P. Zehring, of Richmond, Calif., acted as best man to his brother.

Besides the wedding party, guests included: Mrs. E. W. Powell, Mrs. Allen Moore, Jimmy and Danny Zehring, of Seattle; Jack Tommy, Richard and Georgia Ruth Zehring, of Richmond and the bridegroom's parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. D. Zehring.

MRS. EARL KENNERLY ENERTAINS T. N. T. CLUB TUESDAY NIGHT

Mrs. Earl Kennerly very graciously entertained the T. N. T. club at a charming eight o'clock dinner-supper at her home Tuesday evening. Covers were placed at an attractively appointed table for: Mrs. Howard Marsh, Mrs. Sidney Moon, Mrs. Fred L. Perry, Mrs. Paul Morgan, Mrs. Sherman Morris and the hostess, Mrs. Kennerly.

Gin rummy was the diversion of the pleasant evening hours with Mrs. Perry winning the high score and Mrs. Marsh receiving the low score. The club will be entertained the evening of July 24 at the home of Mrs. Howard Marsh at 916 Hamilton street.

Information Please
Q. "When will I be able to get quicker service?"
A. As soon as the tire, gasoline and truck situation improves and the government permits more deliveries.
Q. "Are my clothes being washed now as good as they were before the war?"
A. Definitely, yes! The government has long recognized that laundry-washed fabrics are rendered germ free. Pre-war standards of hygienic cleanliness have never been lowered.
Q. "How are laundries important to the war effort?"
A. Laundry service helps eliminate absenteeism among women workers. It has given housewives many hours to devote to Red Cross and other war activities on the home front. It helps protect public health and is an important factor in maintaining civilian morale.
Q. "What can I expect in laundry service after the war?"
A. The kind of laundry service we wish we could give you now.

COUNTRY CLUB MIXED TOURNAMENT AND SUPPER IS ENJOYABLE EVENT

One of the largest and most enjoyable events of the Roseburg Country club this season was sponsored by the Lady Golfers Sunday in the form of a mixed tournament at three o'clock at the club course, followed by a delightful potluck supper at the clubhouse.

A two-ball foursome golf tournament was held with Mrs. L. McClintock and E. A. Pearson winners of first place; Miss Naomi Scott and C. M. Howard, second place, and Mrs. H. C. Stearns and Dr. Fred W. Field, third place.

Interesting out-of-town guests included: John Nellis, Hamlin, American Consul to Spain, his wife and their son, John, of Seville, Spain, who spend the weekend here visiting Mr. Hamlin's cousin, Maurice J. Newland, and family.

Members of the club enjoying the affair included: Mrs. H. C. Stearns, Mrs. J. C. Hume and daughter, Miss Joanne; Miss Mimi Ingram, Mr. and Mrs. Paul Helweg and daughters, Miss Shirley Ann and Miss Paula; Mrs. L. K. Fies and son, Bobby; Mr. and Mrs. Ward Cummings, Mr. and Mrs. William Courter, Mr. and Mrs. C. M. Howard, Mr. and Mrs. A. Bean, Dr. and Mrs. G. W. Marshall, Mr. and Mrs. Frederick Chapman, Jr. and daughter, Evangeline, and son, Judd; Mr. and Mrs. Bruce Elliott and daughters, Norma Jean and Patricia, and son, "Butch"; Mr. and Mrs. Lyman Spencer, Mr. and Mrs. Sanford Palmer, Attorney and Mrs. Maurice L. Hallmark and daughter, Maureen, and son, Joe; Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Pearson and daughter, Marly Ellisworth and daughter, Miss Jane; Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth D. Adams, Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Dillard and daughter, Miss Jeanne; Mr. and Mrs. Maurice J. Newland and daughter, Marcia, and son, Roderick; Mr. and Mrs. E. R. Harvey, Mr. and Mrs. Marshall Pengra and sons, Marshall and Michael; Dr. and Mrs. Fred W. Field, Capt. and Mrs. W. F. Amiot, Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Callison, Mr. and Mrs. A. G. Henninger and sons, Larry and Wayne; Mr. and Mrs. Z. T. Adams, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Lockwood, Miss Helen Casey, Miss Naomi Scott, Mrs. R. D. Bridges, Mr. and Mrs. L. E. McClintock and Mrs. J. M. Judd.

Following the supper, contract bridge was in play with Mrs. H. C. Stearns and Mrs. J. C. Hume winning the ladies' high scores and William Courter and C. W. Callison winning the men's high scores.

HAPPY HOUR CLUB HAS ENJOYABLE AFTERNOON MEETING

Mrs. Edwin Booth and Mrs. Bernard Young were most gracious hostesses Wednesday, when they entertained the Riverside Happy Hour club at a charming dessert-luncheon at the home of the former.

Each member brought an antique and numerous dishes and interesting articles averaging more than a century old, were greatly admired. Further entertainment was provided by coupling the members and having each couple act out the name of a well-known novel for the others to guess.

Mrs. W. E. Ott showed the club members the book "Aviation annual of 1945" which she had purchased with club funds for the memorial shelf at the Roseburg Public library honoring Captain Wallace Cloake.

Those present were: Mrs. Walter Bailey, Mrs. T. R. Burr, Mrs. H. W. Conn, Mrs. Vance Cox, Mrs. Ned Dixon, Mrs. Dale Guiley, Mrs. Bert Kruse, Mrs. Charles Lee, Mrs. W. E. Ott, Miss Marjorie Ott, Mrs. C. M. Stark and the hostesses, Mrs. Booth and Mrs. Young.

The next club meeting will be in the form of a picnic potluck supper for all members and their families to be held at seven o'clock Wednesday evening, August 8, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Ott, at Brown's bridge on the North Umpqua river.

ALBERT MICELLI IS HONORED AT DELIGHTFUL DINNER ON BIRTHDAY

Honoring Albert Micelli on his birthday, Mrs. Micelli arranged a very charming seven o'clock dinner party Wednesday evening inviting as guests to their beautiful home, Hollyhurst, on the Melrose road: Dr. and Mrs. Clair K. Allen, Mr. and Mrs. Roy Catching, Mr. and Mrs. L. L. Wimberly, Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Dillard and Mr. and Mrs. Frederick J. Porter.

The dinner was served at a long table in the attractive garden. Visiting was enjoyed during the pleasant evening hours.

Marry at Home Wedding

Mr. and Mrs. Carl Johnson

Miss Violet Marian Bloomquist, lovely daughter of Mr. and Mrs. E. O. Bloomquist, of Roseburg, and Carl Johnson, of Roseburg, were married Sunday afternoon, July 1, at a beautiful wedding at the home of the bride's parents, Rev. Enoch Sandeen, pastor of the Eden Lutheran church, performed the impressive ceremony in the presence of only a few relatives and friends.

Beautiful baskets of white and orchid gladioli formed a lovely setting for the nuptial service. Presiding the ceremony, Mrs. Sandeen very charmingly sang, "I Love Thee" by Grieg and "At Dawning" by Cadman.

The bride was charming in a white Swiss-tailored suit and an orchid corsage. Mrs. Greta Bloomquist, sister-in-law of the bride, was matron of honor, and was attractive in a pink eyelet-embroidered dress with a corsage of gardenias. Frank Johnson acted as best man. Mrs. Bloomquist, mother of the bride, wore a levery green and white sheer dress with a corsage of pink rosebuds. A reception followed the ceremony, at which time the bride cut the beautiful tiered wedding cake, which was topped by an elaborately decorated wedding bell.

Both the bride and bridegroom are well known in Roseburg. Mrs. Johnson attended Roseburg Senior High school; Southern Oregon College of Education and the University of Oregon and was formerly a teacher in the Roseburg Junior High school. During the last year, she taught in the Kenwood school at Bend, Ore. Mr. Johnson is the owner of the Vista Auto Court north of Roseburg.

Following a week's honeymoon at coast points, Mr. and Mrs. Johnson returned to Roseburg to make their home.
